Writing a report.

If you asked eight people question 1 and they all said 'yes', you could write: All of the people interviewed have travelled into town by car in the last two weeks.

What would you write if they all said 'no'?

Put these phrases on the line below:

Some people / half the people / only one person / most of the people / only few people

For example:

The results of the survey show that only one person has used public transport in the last two weeks but most of the people interviewed have travelled into town by car.

Survey Report

A survey was carried out in our class, to find out how green people are.

The results of the survey show that _____ has / have used public transport in the last two weeks, and / but _____ has / have travelled into town by car.

Fortunately / Unfortunately _____ interviewed has / have bought a burger in a plastic container and / but _____ has / have picked up litter and put it in a bin.

_____ has / have taken bottles to a bottle bank or recycled paper, and / but _____ interviewed has / have paid more for something because it is environmentally friendly.

_____ has / have used plastic bags for their shopping, and _____ has / have bought organic fruit or vegetables in the last two weeks.

The results of the survey suggest that the students of _____ are _____ green.
