ALL RP SEARCHES WILL BE FOR MY OC(s) X THE CANON AS THE MAIN PREFERENCE. REQUESTING OCs OR DOUBLES IS ALLOWED BUT WILL BE MORE LIKELY TO BE TURNED DOWN. PLEASE RESPECT MY BOUNDARIES AND I WILL DO THE SAME FOR YOU.

(Read Here for Prefs Not Yet Mentioned in My Ads & Questions Often Asked About My RP Prefs)

Howdy! I'm `Rara`. I'm a 23yr old in the PDT/PST time zone (CA, USA – GMT-8). I'm usually looking to RP my OC x CC for fandom RPs. Here’s what you gotta know about me!

Writing Style

I'm a Semi Lit to Adv Lit writer, but my average writing style is more of a “Lazy” Lit or free writing style. I basically enjoy writing what's necessary and not pushing myself to follow a strict word or character amount. If you would like writing examples, I’m more than happy to share upon request!

Partner's Writing Style

I'd generally prefer my partner to be between Semi Lit and Average Lit. So long as you don't write one-liners, I even occasionally accept those who write in script style/use asterisks. However, if I ask for a writing example from you, I expect the same kindness of seeing an example from you, too!

Partner Gender Prefs

None! Anyone of any gender may message me! Please just understand that I expect basic respect and that RP is RP. I am happily taken and not looking for a relationship so I'd appreciate any flirting to be kept strictly as humor and platonic compliments. Don't make things weird! Breaching this boundary will result in a hard block after one warning.

Character Pairing Gender Prefs

- MxF (Male x Female) is my main preference and what I'm always asking for!
- FxF (Female x Female) is a secondary preference. Ask me permission before pitching any ideas, please!

I will only do MxM (Male x Male) as a side pairing or established pairing unless otherwise stated. Due to past experiences with less than open minded individuals, I am no longer comfy with having MxM as a main pairing unless the person is a friend or mutual. Please don't request this for RP without involving my previous prefs first!

Character Pairings (Listed as “Me” x “You”)

- OCxCC (OC x Canon Character) is my heaviest preference! This is and always will be what I’m searching for the most.
- I will rarely allow Double Up/Double OCxCC (i.e. 1 OC and 1 CC for each person) but it’s something I only allow on a case by case basis. Please ask for doubles if you aren’t a friend or mutual! I also ask you to respect my answer if I deny your request to do so.
- OCxOC (Shipping both of our Original Characters) is something I only allow on a case by case basis. Unless I say that I'm allowing it, this is almost strictly for friends. It depends on the fandom, scenario, and my overall mood so please keep an eye out in my original advert or my fandom search doc for these details. Ask first and respect my decision if I say no. This rule also applies to newer mutuals asking for RP for the first time.
- I only allow CCxCC (Canon x Canon/Canon Only) pairings as side pairings or platonic plot figures. I will not be writing any CCxCC pairing on its own or without the involvement of one of my OCs. This is because I feel more comfortable writing CCs alongside my OCs, kind of like using a crutch or cane with a weak leg. Please respect this boundary and do not expect your Canon Only ship to take the spotlight!

Pre-Made OCs vs. “On the Spot” OCs

I don't make OCs on the spot. I put a lot of effort into my characters and I'm just not confident enough writing a character that is in what I would usually consider its concept phase. If you don't respect this preference, you will be denied. I have plenty of different OCs for fandom situations and a decent amount of variety in my few non-fandom/fully original OCs. My OCs can even be adjusted to specific settings depending on the idea so don't hesitate to brainstorm with me if you still want to try writing together!

Response Frequency

I will respond multiple times a week depending on my free time and overall interest. Sometimes I might be able to respond more or less frequently. Feel free to poke or ping every so often. DO NOT SPAM ME or you will be soft blocked and/or muted. A general rule of thumb for checking in is after 3 days to a week, you're good to message me! Pinging me with every reply is fine but not preferred, messaging only with pokes OOC daily inches very close to spam territory.
(The frequency of checking in I use for my RP partners is usually 2 days to a week before I message. I don't delete chats or private servers, so inactivity isn't a problem.)

Partner's Response Frequency

If possible, once a day to twice a week! However, I'm very patient. The most important part of RP is having fun making a story together, not the frequency of replies! Don't feel pressured to respond a certain amount. IRL life comes first after all. I only require that you don't ghost me! If you aren't feeling the plot or just lost interest in our RP - TELL ME! Things happen sometimes and that's okay. What isn't okay is being left on read with no reply to any check up messages, waiting for you to come back or worrying about whether you're okay. Communication is key!

Original vs Fandom Pref

Fandom all the way (if it wasn't already obvious)! However, I do accept original/non-fandom RPs upon request! My only rule with originals is that we discuss things thoroughly beforehand and follow all of my previously mentioned prefs. DO NOT BE WEIRD with your requests for original plots (if you aren't sure what I mean I will provide clarification). If I'm feeling like the vibes are off, you could be muted or hard blocked.

Smut/ERP Pref

Accepted but not preferred as I don't have the experience writing it nor am I super comfortable doing so. I will also absolutely NOT do smut without an established plot. I see "the deed" as a part of the story and not just "being h*rny". My preferred ratio (smut : story) is 20:80 or 30:70 at most.

Amount of Characters

I often tend to do casts of characters, though my preference is 2-3 with 1-2 side characters (i.e. temporary characters that won't need to be consistent). I'm very proficient in making interpretations of canon characters so long as they have enough content to interpret. For example, I'd be able to make interps for a character like Ash Ketchum from Pokemon but a character that doesn't have a lot of screen time or has more niche lore like Nurse Joy from Pokemon wouldn't have enough for me to confidently write an interp for.

If you're interested in RP'ing with me, please DM me with the phrase &/or emoji I requested in the post you first saw so I know you're from that specific place! I have dealt with spammers, creepy randos, and people who disregard my ad completely in the past, which is why I have this “password” rule.

If you don't follow the rule, refuse to answer when asked, and/or answer incorrectly, you are at risk of getting hard blocked on intro!

Thanks for reading! 💜
