

The Practice of Eucharist

The sacrament of Eucharist was instituted by Jesus at the Last Supper (Luke 22:7-20), practiced by Him after His resurrection (Luke 24:30-35) and given further explanation by the Apostle Paul to the church in Corinth (1 Cor. 11:17-34).

In taking Eucharist, we are not only remembering Jesus' sacrifice of body and blood for the redemption of the world, we are also mysteriously united with Christ. The Apostle Paul takes this union seriously, "Is not the cup of thanksgiving for which we give thanks a participation in the blood of Christ? And is not the bread that we break a participation in the body of Christ?" (1 Cor. 10:16). Furthermore, Eucharist, while personal and intimate, is more than individualistic as we believe that followers of Jesus are also united and mysteriously made one body by sharing in the bread and cup (1 Cor. 10:17).

While we believe nothing magical occurs during Eucharist, something mysterious, real and powerful does. As a result of our theology, we partake in Eucharist on a weekly basis, generally at the end of our worship gathering as a crescendo.

We invite ALL (regardless of denomination) who have begun the journey to trust Jesus as Savior, Teacher and Lord to partake in the Sacrament of Eucharist. If you have not made a decision to follow Christ, please feel free to abstain as we are seeking to create an atmosphere of authenticity in which no one is manipulated into acting against their conscience.

Practicalities: When you come forward for Eucharist, come when you feel ready at your leisure down the center aisle. Receive a piece of bread and then dip that piece of bread into either wine or grape juice before eating it. Then you may return to your seat.

In the Gospel in Life series we will begin this winter for Life Together, we will join the late author and pastor Timothy Keller in an eight-week study of the gospel and the ways to live it out in our everyday life. From exploring the world we live in now to preparing for the world that is to come, we will learn how the gospel can change our heart, our community, and how we live in the world.

Life Together Youth will be going through the Alpha Course. Alpha Youth creates a space for young people to hold meaningful conversations about life, faith and purpose. It is a chance for youth to explore life's biggest questions.

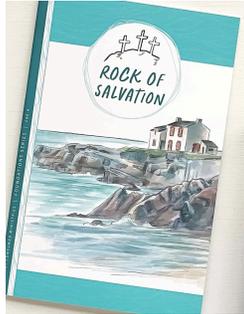

Life Together Kids will go through Rock of Salvation. Rock of Salvation will answer our kids' questions about what salvation is, why we need it, and how the decision to put our faith in Jesus provides a foundation for our lives! This study will help them understand that trusting God for salvation is life-changing.
