

Community Fundraiser & Organizer

Overview

Thank you for your interest in working with the Sexual Violence Prevention Association \(SVPA\)! We're looking for a Community Fundraiser & Organizer to join our team and spearhead fundraising, partnerships, community building, and outreach in the DMV area. This is a volunteer position for 3-7 hours per week. A year-long commitment is greatly preferred. In this role, you will have a significant impact as we expand and grow our work preventing sexual violence systemically.

Responsibilities

- Organize and run local fundraising events in the DMV area (e.g., amateur drag nights, bingo, etc.)
- Establish relationships with local businesses, organizers, and community groups (e.g., As You Are, Pitchers, Stonewall Kickball, Dew Drop, Red Derby, etc.)
- Plan and coordinate corporate social responsibility campaigns (e.g., a bar offering a percentage of proceeds during Sexual Assault Awareness)
- Build relationships and coordinate with local vendors and crafters (e.g., local vendors sell our zines, crafters donate the proceeds from a special item)
- Represent the SVPA in local outreach efforts, events, and spaces (e.g., reach out to new stakeholders and attend meetings/events on behalf of the organization)

Requirements

- 3–7 hours per week, with occasional increases during events
- Required 6-month commitment, 1 year greatly preferred
- Must live in the DMV, preferably within a 30-minute commute of DC, no car required
- Formal education or direct experience in this field is not required. We welcome folks with relevant general skills and a passion for our work.

About Us

The Sexual Violence Prevention Association \(SVPA\) is a national nonprofit dedicated to preventing sexual violence systemically. We do this by revolutionizing policy, research, and institutions. Please read our impact report or visit our website to learn more.

The SVPA is a start-up organization. The DMV Community Fundraiser & Organizer will be an essential member of our team and key to our expansion and growth as an organization. We pride ourselves on fostering a supportive community environment and intense passion for our mission. We're looking for an engaged and driven individual who is passionate about preventing sexual violence.

Accommodations

At the SVPA, we pride ourselves on our ability to remain flexible and accommodate everyone's needs. Please let us know if you are facing any barriers to working with us. When possible, we are happy to make accommodations for language differences, disability needs, child care, gaps in employment, criminal history, scheduling issues, work/life balance, and anything else that may be affecting you.

Diversity

The SVPA was founded with the core belief that those most impacted by sexual violence must be leaders in addressing it. Thus, our entire team is made up of marginalized survivors. Our board and leadership are 75% LGBTQ+ individuals, 60% people of color, and over 50% disabled and/or neurodivergent. We greatly encourage applications from people who have faced systemic barriers and we value lived experience.

Disclaimer

This position occasionally requires work outside of normal business hours, and at locations that may be off-site. This job description is intended to convey information essential to understanding the scope of the job and the general nature and level of work required.
