

Scavengers and 1v1 Collab Tour

Scavengers and 1v1 are both happy to present to you a mashup Triple Elimination Swiss tournament featuring alternating rounds of 1v1 and Scavenger hunts, to crown one person as the winner for both their knowledge and battling skills!

What is this tournament about?

The tour consists of alternating rounds of 1v1 games and Scavenger Hunts, each happening in the respective rooms, with a single winner being declared at the end of the tour.

What's a Swiss tour?

A Swiss tour allows you to play multiple games and matches people according to their current record rather than a predetermined bracket (Swiss Tour). This one's triple elimination, meaning you get eliminated if you lose thrice over the course of the tour.

How does each round work?

a) 1v1: You play your opponent in a Best of 5 series, in the [Gen 8] 1v1 format on Pokemon Showdown. The first to win 3 games in this tier secures a win in their matchup.

b) Scavenger Hunts: Swiss keeps track of your record over the course of the tournament. The first 50% of people with a certain record to finish the Scavenger Hunt get a win.

For example:

If it's a 64 man tour, the first round will be a 1v1 matchup, which means 32 people go 1-0, and the other 32 go 0-1 going into the second round, the Scavenger Hunt.

In this case, the first 16 people with each record to finish the Scavenger Hunt gain a win, while the others lose the round.

What rewards can I get by winning this tournament?

Our list of rewards includes:

Winner:

A custom title on Smogon.

100 Kyubits which can be redeemed in the 1v1 Shopfront for rewards.

60 points counting towards the Scavenger Ladder

A shoutout in the roomintros of both rooms

First Runners-up:

25 Kyubits

30 Scavenger ladder points

Third Runners-up:

Scavengers: <https://psscav.weebly.com/bulbapedia.html> is a great list of tips/tricks, and in general playing in more hunts would give you a better edge in the final tour.

One last question. Should I participate?

Of course! Even if you aren't familiar with one or both of the rooms, this is a good chance to find a new way to spend time on PS!. Hope we see you there!
