Contact: arieldiazart@yahoo.com

Use the commission forms to request a commission.

For Digital Commissions <https://tinyurl.com/y3deqdze>

For Traditional Commissions <https://tinyurl.com/6rp6zyzf>

I reserve the right to decline or discontinue a commission at any time.

Payment is done through PayPal, using Dollars as the currency, at least half up front.

The final product is strictly for personal use. For commercial use please contact me through the email listed above.

Remember to credit and link back to me.

Note that for half payment, I will send you a watermarked, low res version of your completed drawing to make sure it meets your expectations. Once the rest of the payment is made, I will send you the full res, without a watermark.

I hold the rights over my commissions. (e.g. to post on my social media, prints (only fanart), use for public display.)

I reserve the right to livestream and record the creation of the artwork, unless we agree differently.

You are solely responsible for securing the proper rights to the character/s you want the commission to feature.

Characters from pop culture, anime, comics, video games and media are accepted.

An extra design fee applies to those who have no reference images of the subject and would like me to draw from a description or a collage of photographs.

Keep in mind that the complexity of the subject might affect the final price.
