Misc:

- Bug Fixes

- Fixed bug where the C-Stick could input forward smash backwards when not intending to
- Fixed issue where analog inputs were being sent to the wrong slot if heart swapped by Manaphy
- Fixed issue where trying to access a model bone that does not exist would cause significant frame drops on console; this in particular affected the SSE Dark Link fight.
- Fixed issue where Capsules would occasionally not spawn items
- Party Balls no longer can rise after exploding
- Fixed issue where Wiimote+Nunchuck could not access hidden character alt costumes.
- Matched new Green Hill Zone's collisions fully to the previous version, which caused minor issues with some character tech previously
- Space Colony Ark SSZ 1:1 now has the correct spawn points
- Bomb Rain and Sudden Death will now spawn Bob-Ombs when the item is turned off in the Item Switch again
- CPUs will no longer airdodge offstage as much

- General Changes

- Random stage select has received a massive overhaul!
 - All stages are now able to be toggled on or off individually
 - Hazards are now toggle-able for select stages, which will swap things such as animations, collisions, and hazards when toggled between
 - Currently supported stages are Smashville, Yoshi's Island, Green Hill Zone, Fountain of Dreams, Dream Land, and Dead Line
 - More variants and supported stages will be added in future updates
 - Presets can now be swapped between by pressing L or R on the random stage selection screen
 - Included presets are as follows:
 - Legal stages (default)
 - PMBR
 - 2023 Proposed
 - 2024 Proposed
 - Australia
 - Japan

- All stages
 - A new mode for random stage selection, Shuffle, has been added. This mode cycles through all enabled stages once, then loops.
 - Controls and features on the stage selection screen have been adjusted
 - X remains striking, though striking all stages not on random is now performed by pressing X while hovering over the random button
 - Y now enters the music selection menu
 - Z will toggle hazards temporarily for the selected stage; this can also be done while hovered over the random button to only random to hazard on/off variants of stages
 - Holding a shoulder button and pressing Start over a stage will now enter a new alternate stage selection menu, allowing for more 1:1 alts and secret stages. Pressing only Start on a stage will once again select the default stage. R+Start is exclusively used for 1:1 stages, while L+Start's menu contains different layouts and for-fun stages
 - Only Temple of Time (L), Castle Siege (Both), and Training Room (R) currently have stages in place
- Gameplay Changes
 - Ledge occupancy during <100% ledge roll 45 > 48
 - Footstool frame data normalized throughout the cast, which affects the following characters: Dedede, Diddy Kong, Link, Mewtwo, Ness, Pit, ROB, Snake, and Toon Link
 - Characters will lose all ledge intangibility frames when performing an aerial or special out of a ledge jump
 - Behavior when becoming grounded during non-tumble hitstun matched to Melee; this means characters will no longer experience full hitstun when grounded after knockback stacking
 - Characters cannot be "rehit" if they are hit during invulnerability frames and transition to vulnerable frames during hitlag
 - Sleep effect attacks will no longer pierce character armor in the air
 - Physics delays have been fixed!
 - Wavedashes no longer require one frame of being airborne
 - Characters now experience fastfall physics on frame 1 instead of frame 2
 - Characters will no longer experience an extra frame of landing lag when they would go into fall the frame they would land
 - Fixes for more situations are being tested and will be implemented in future updates
