

NCAA ELIGIBILITY

To be able to participate in NCAA College Division 1 or 2 athletics after high school, only College Prep. “Core” Courses will count toward eligibility.

Core courses approved for NCAA eligibility at United include:

College Prep. English 1 (1)	College Prep. Algebra 1 (1)	Physical Science (1)	World Studies (1)	ASL 1(1)
College Prep. English 2 (1)	College Prep. Geometry (1)	Biology (1)	American History (1)	ASL 2(1)
College Prep. English 3 (1)	College Prep. Algebra 2 (1)	Dual Credit Biology (1)	American Government (1)	ASL 3(1)
College Prep. English 4 (1)	Statistics (1)	Astronomy (1)	Psychology (½)	ASL 4(1)
AP Honors English 4 (1)	Pre-Calculus (1)	Chemistry (1)	Sociology (½)	Spanish 1(1)
Speech (½)	Calculus (1)	Physics (1)	Citizenship (1)	Spanish 2(1)
Writing (½)				Spanish 3(1)
				Spanish 4(1)

Division 1 colleges/universities in Ohio include: Youngstown State, Ohio University, Bowling Green, Akron, Kent State, and Ohio State University. For a complete list of D1 schools and sports, go to:

<https://www.ncsasports.org/division-1-colleges>

To be eligible to compete in D1, students must earn a minimum core-course GPA of 2.3 and minimum of (16) credits from the above list of courses.

Division 2 colleges/universities in Ohio include: Walsh, Malone, Ashland, Tiffin, and Lake Erie College.

<https://www.ncsasports.org/division-2-colleges>

To be eligible to compete in D2, students must earn a minimum core-course GPA of 2.2 and minimum of (16) credits from the above list of courses..

For more information on NCAA athletic eligibility, go to the NCAA Eligibility Center.

Division 3 athletics are NOT governed by NCAA eligibility. For any student planning to go to college, however, college prep. courses are recommended. Division 3 colleges/universities in Ohio include Mount Union, Baldwin Wallage, Oberlin, Wooster, and Case Western Reserve. For a complete list of Ohio D3 schools and sports, go to:

Ohio Division 3 Colleges