WALT: Write a persuasive argument that will persuade the reader

Opinion Statement:

My audience:..

Title:
Introduction (Catchy opening/hook, rhetorical question, point of view clearly stated)	Success Criteria
	Words to introduce another point or paragraph: Eg: Additionally, in addition, further, not only, as well, also, however,
Reason and back up detail (Topic sentence, expert opinion, factual evidence, quotes)	Words for showing cause and effect: Eg: so, creates, consequently, as a result, causes, leads to
Reason and back up detail (Topic sentence, expert opinion, factual evidence, quotes)	Inclusive pronouns (to make the reader feel involved): Eg: I, we, you, our
	Words for introducing evidence: Eg: for example, such as, as shown by, for instance, these include,
Reason and back up detail (Topic sentence, expert opinion, factual evidence, quotes)	Emotive language: Eg: Cruel, disastrous consequences, slaughter
Reason and back up detail (Topic sentence, expert opinion, factual evidence, quotes)	Exaggeration: eg: Everyone, all
Conclusion (repeat main points, restate your opinion, offer a solution)	Imperatives/ Commands: Eg: then stop!