

Name: Gideon Sever; Smiling Sword

Gender: Male

Age: 20

Species: Human

Appearance:

Gideon's hair is a fiery orange that goes down to the base of his neck. Flawless skin, aqua blue eyes, and yes- he has a very fit body (you'll find out why). He's described by other characters as beautiful rather than handsome. No shirt underneath his coat.

Personality:

Unmotivated: He's a very laid back character that doesn't like to do very much, and would honestly prefer to be taking a nap over literally anything else..

Arrogant: He's not exactly a jerk about it, he just doesn't believe he'll ever have to exert himself. He basically sees himself as perfect (cause he kind of is).

Lazy: Gideon will do everything in his power to avoid having some responsibility. The main reason he left his homeland and the promise of money, is that he didn't want to rule over everything.

Backstory:

Gideon comes from the richest nation in all of Primus and is the youngest of his father's 35 children. His mother, the king's fifth wife Nalin, made a deal with a demon to bestow Gideon with a perfect body and an unnatural amount of talent so that he would excel at everything he did. The price was the soul of Gideon, and all of his future descendants. This was done so that Gideon would be named as the sole heir for his father's fortune and by proxy give Nalin access to it. Gideon was eventually named as the heir, but he doesn't care about money at all. He left his homeland for an adventure and is constantly making fools of the assassins that his 34 siblings send after him.

Gideon's Rapier: <https://files.catbox.moe/fglag3.JPG>

It's a platinum rapier that measures about 2.5 meters long though despite it's length, it's still light enough to be used with a single hand. It's a plain design with a guard that resembles a cross.

Special Abilities:

Enchant: Gideon has a high degree of magical knowledge and is capable of "blessing" his rapier with a multitude of magic buffs. Though to keep it simple I'll limit this to standard elemental enchantments on his sword. Gideon can coat the blade in fire, ice, lightning, water. He can't shoot them. They just give his hits a little bit of elemental damage.

Flash Cry: His rapier will be enveloped in a coat of light that when thrust forward will shoot out a straight beam of light that's about two feet wide. He typically uses it to try and finish someone due to its power (it's capable of burning a hole through common steel). He can only use 'Flash Cry' twice in one fight, with a charge time of 3-4 seconds.

Shattering Light: Either with his finger or with his sword, Gideon will draw either a line or a shape of light in the air. After a moment the light will shatter and the shrapnel will be shot out in a straight line at his target. Each piece of shrapnel is pretty much as strong as a dart. Therefore, it could stick into wood and get through skin easy enough. But it'll bounce off of stone or metal. Gideon can use this ability three times per fight.

RANK SPECIAL ABILITIES

LIGHT EXPLOSION:

Due to a successful fight, Gideon has received training and has developed the skill LIGHT EXPLOSION. Gideon can release a ball that explodes upon impact. Upon explosion a smaller ball of white light will be released which rises straight up and will cause impaired vision. Gideon can shatter this smaller ball of light in the same way as he could with his previous skill, SHATTERING LIGHT.

-LIMITS-

Unlike with SHATTERING LIGHT, LIGHT EXPLOSION, upon shattering, will spread in every direction in a 3 meter radius instead of heading straight for Gideons opponents.

Gideon can only use this skill once per fight.

If Gideon is near enough to the explosion when it goes off, he could be injured by the impaired vision from the light, and the shattered shards that release after.

The ball of light will affect anyone's vision for 3 seconds every second they remain looking at the light.

Fighting Style: Gideon's fighting style can be summed up as lazy. He prefers to let his opponent tire themselves out while he dances around them with a smile on his face. This is done mostly to get his opponents angry and make them more likely to make a mistake that he'll capitalize on that.
