

Returning to the Ocean of Our Being

Voice

Okay, let's join in the mystery and magnificence of the Breath

Father, by all Your Names we come Into the Light of Our own Being
Into the receiving of the Breath with which You are breathing us
We surrender into this sweetness
Relinquishing any idea of a small self
Returning to the ocean of our Being...Allowing...
Feeling the shared Presence of every beautiful aspect of the One
Who has chosen to know it is being breathed...
In this Now moment
Presenting to the Sonship...
The gift of Presence
Feel the innocence of this Breath... and the purity of your surrendering to it.

End of meditation

Voice for End of Meditation

So softly
Within the great embrace of this Comforter
Feel yourself coalescing back into the space time dream
Without resistance
Eager to forgive all things
Eager to Be Love
Eager to bring the freshness of this small gathering to All who come into your circle
How lightly it all rests upon you now with no filters
Only the YES of your heart relinquished to Love
Eternity All around You
Space and time just an old friend now as you use it as your springboard to awaken from
There is nothing that you resist or that resists you anymore
You are simply the Space which is being Breathed Feel the purity of your Being

Feel the miracle that is knowing this
The sweetness of a healed mind... and a heart at rest
Feel Spirit Breath's constancy holding you in the Now...
The cross point where horizontal and vertical meet...
Above the battle ground
Pure Light
You are the Breath of Peace...
The Breath of Joy
