As a special thank you to our terrific community for propelling us through an exciting and successful first year, our friends at Trend Micro are providing two $250 Amazon gift cards to lucky Birmingham technology community members in recognition of the first anniversary of BHM AWS!

To Enter:
Post on LinkedIn with a description about something new with AWS you've recently done, or plan to try. @-tag @Birmingham AWS Meetup and add hashtag #bhmaws

BHM AWS organizers will respond to all posts with these tags to share and confirm entry, and all entrants will be placed in a drawing to win one of two $250 Amazon gift cards, courtesy of our sponsor Trend Micro.

We ask that all entrants be Alabama residents or work closely with those in the Birmingham tech community. BHM AWS reserves the right to disqualify any entries at any time.

Deadline:
All posts must be completed by 12:00 AM CST, February 25.

Drawing:
The winners will be selected at the end of our February 25 meetup following John Byrd's presentation. You must be present to win. BHM AWS organizers will redraw if a chosen entrant is not in attendance.

GOOD LUCK!
