

Gravity

Gravity

Grounded...

Am I stable?

Better than untethered

maybe

Perhaps not

I began untethered

Floating free in amniotic bliss

Then quantum mechanics

Spinning Earth

circling a star

Stuck to the planet

Like a traffic jam

Without an exit ramp

Time continuums

and new gravity

Mind gravity crushing

Weight of the world

on tired shoulders

I forgot how to untether

Liberate

from mind gravity

A sinking heart

like a stone in murky water

To defy gravity

Is to fly

Wings spread wide

Soaring above vapor trails

Sliding on currents

of air

Life requires gravity

But I want to be untethered

from gravity....
