YOUNG INVINCIBLES

3:03	Q1: The Affordable Care Act changed the health care game for young people. What are some ways young people have benefitted under the ACA? #TodaysVoicesTues
3:09	Q2: Over the last 10 years, the uninsured rate for young adults has been cut in half, but this age group is still largely missing out on coverage. What are some barriers young people face in getting covered? #TodaysVoicesTues
3:15	Q3: There is a perception that young people don't need health coverage, but we know that is simply not the case. Why is it important for young people to get covered? #TodaysVoicesTues
3:21	Q4: 2020 has taken a toll on our country, both physically and mentally, and especially among our younger community members. How does having health coverage help those in need of mental health care? #TodaysVoicesTues
3:27	Q5: The ACA created several different paths for young adults to gain health coverage. What are some of those options? #TodaysVoicesTues
3:33	Q6: It's currently open enrollment at HealthCare.gov. For young people who may be struggling financially right now, is there any financial help to make health coverage more affordable? How do they get this assistance? #TodaysVoicesTues
3:39	Q7: From deductibles to networks, there's a lot to think about when shopping for insurance. How can young people sort through all the information to pick the best plan for them? Is there any help navigating all this? #TodaysVoicesTues
3:45	Q8: It's the holidays. The pandemic is surging. Do people need to sign up for coverage now, or can they wait until the new year? #TodaysVoicesTues
3:51	Q9: Getting covered is one thing, finding care is another. What resources are out there to help young people access the services they need to stay healthy? #TodaysVoicesTues
3:57	Q10: This Friday, YI is hosting our annual National Youth Enrollment Day, to make sure young adults know about their coverage options & how to enroll. We'll be spending the day saying Goodbye 2020, #HelloHealthCare! How do you plan to help us get the word out? #TodaysVoicesTues
4:00	That's a wrap on this week's #TodaysVoicesTues! Huge thank you to @DCHealthLink for co-hosting and to everyone who joined us today, and we'll see you Friday for National Youth Enrollment Day!
