

Speed dating instructions:

First, we will divide the class into two groups, group A (10) and group B (10). Group A will be seated around the room and group B will rotate, spending two minutes with each person. Both parties keep track of whom they would like to get to know better based on the way the person answers the questions you were able to ask them.

Use a timer to keep track of the two minutes. When the two minutes are up only group B will get up and rotate to the next person. You will continue this routine until everyone has had a chance to talk to every person in group A. Before they start, you can place the questions on the projector and go over so they can pick the questions they feel will help them get to know someone.

After everyone has gone, then you can open the discussion about their experience. Why they have chosen the questions that they did? Which questions did they feel were most important to get to know someone in 2 minutes? What influenced their decision to get to know someone better?

You can also ask them what are some questions they believe are most important to get to know someone better, and if they are not on the list what would they add?

Then you can continue with the topic of love and if this is a realistic way to find love.

Citas Rápidas:

Primero, dividiremos la clase en dos grupos, grupo A (10) y grupo B (10). El grupo A se sentará alrededor de la sala y el grupo B rotará, pasando dos minutos con cada persona. Ambas partes hacen un seguimiento de a quién les gustaría conocer mejor según la forma en que la persona responde las preguntas que usted pudo hacerles.

Utilice un temporizador para realizar un seguimiento de los dos minutos. Cuando terminen los dos minutos, solo el grupo B se levantará y pasará a la siguiente persona. Continuará con esta rutina hasta que todos hayan tenido la oportunidad de hablar con todas las personas del grupo A. Antes de que comiencen, puede colocar las preguntas en el proyector y repasarlas para que puedan elegir las preguntas que creen que les ayudarán a conocer a alguien.

Una vez que todos se hayan ido, puede iniciar la discusión sobre su experiencia. ¿Por qué han elegido las preguntas que hicieron? ¿Qué preguntas sintieron que eran las más importantes para conocer a alguien en 2 minutos? ¿Qué influyó en su decisión de conocer mejor a alguien?

También puede preguntarles cuáles son algunas de las preguntas que creen que son las más importantes para conocer mejor a alguien, y si no están en la lista, ¿qué agregarían?

Entonces puedes continuar con el tema del amor y hablar sobre si esta seria un forma de encontrar el amor verdadero.
