

RFP#25-06: Home Instruction Services

Opening Date: April 16, 2025 at 10:30 A.M.

Questions & Answers

Q1. Is a partial award possible, shared with other firms?

A1. No partial awards are being considered

Q2. Approx what percent of the engagements can be online vs. in-person?

A2. We do not have a set number of online vs. in-person engagements.

Q3. if the District is ONLY taking a single full-year all-inclusive price, how can we learn of the number of hours, number of engagements, and level of engagements?

A3. Our cost proposal in the RFP is per hour- see page 27. The "all-inclusive cost proposal" is in reference to all service costs that must be listed on the proposal. No additional cost will be allowed.

Q4. What type of services will be covered under this contract, teaching, therapy, etc?

A4. We are looking for teaching services.

Q5. Is there a projected number of hours or historic hours from the previous contract for this contract to estimate the volume that will be requested?

A5. The number of hours is to be determined.

Q6. With two well-matched students (similar needs, similar schedules, similar ambitions, can online to TWO students simultaneously be done?

A6. While it would be possible, all decisions related to combining home instruction student sessions are subject to the discretion and approval of district administration.

Q7. (Or "hybrid", meaning a tutor in one student's home bringing in another student (likely a friend, classmate, or teammate) who joins them online?)

A7. See answer to question 6.