Brief Document Summary

This document is meant only for those 18+ and up/legally allowed to view adult content. If any of the following things aren't legal to view or disturb you, turn back now. You know, in case the giant naked bullman and the only way to access this being on 18+ sites/boards wasn't enough.

If you are of legal age/allowed to view this, then welcome to the document. This document intends to focus on Yancy - one of the New Texas bulls - and his off-the-clock schedule. This content will primarily be just some fluff expansion on him and some general side-content. In particular, my focus will be on:

- Why did he pick his job?
- His view on relationships and work.
- Yancy's future plans/what he hopes to do with his life.
- Fucking him.

Big T: Arm wrestles Big T

Gift Stop: Flirts with Ellie

Straps: Trying on new clothes while Busky hits on him/recommends new styles that are popular with cows

Iced Teats: He fixes the milker in Ice Teats

Iced Teats: Does some manual milking while the milker is broken

Barn: Him and Millie fuck like animals (they're co-workers, the sexual tension must be high)

Barn: He double teams some random cows with Brynn

Barn: He flirts with Carrie and Cora

Ideas for random scenes, provided by Altair.

Locale Dialog

The following blurbs are displayed in the tiles around New Texas. For these sections, variations without specific additions are intended to return nothing.

Milker Tile

// If time is within Time Block 1.

{if player has met Yancy: Yancy isn't around; he's either sleeping or isn't on the clock right now. You'll need to come back later.}

// If time is within Time Block 2.

(Unchanged from his normal dialogue.)

// If time is within Time Block 3.

{if player has met Yancy: Yancy isn't around; he's probably unwinding and letting loose some of his sexual tension.}

// If time is within Time Block 4.

{if player has met Yancy: Yancy isn't around; considering how late it is, he's probably out getting a drink before calling it a day.}

Ten Ton Gym

// If time is within Time Block 1.

{if player has met Yancy: Yancy isn't around; who would work out at this hour?}

// If time is within Time Block 2.

{if player has met Yancy: Yancy is probably still working. You'll need to wait until later if you want to catch him working out.}

// If time is within Time Block 3.

{if player has met Yancy:

New Texas' ram-horned stud seems between workouts right now. Between tossing you a sweaty wave and lustily looking over at some of the local cowgirls, it's hard to figure out if he's looking to bench some weights or bench some ass.

/else if player hasn't met Yancy:

A stranger stands out in the corner of your eye; they're pumping iron nearby and sporting some mighty impressive ram horns. They're as ripped and big as the rest of the bulls, the outline of a bulge against their shorts giving you a good idea of just how hung they are.

// If time is within Time Block 4.

{if player has met Yancy: Yancy isn't around; considering how late it is, he's probably out getting a drink before calling it a day.}

Bar

// If time is within Time Block 1.

{if player has met Yancy: Yancy isn't around; you must have missed him before he turned in for the night.}

// If time is within Time Block 2.

{if player has met Yancy: Yancy's probably working right now if you wanted to see him; he's probably over at the milker.}

// If time is within Time Block 3.

{if player has met Yancy: Yancy isn't here yet. Knowing him he's probably unwinding physically before he swings in for drinks!}

// If time is within Time Block 4.

{if player has met Yancy:

Yancy's familiar mug - and his drinking mug - is present. The bullram quickly raises the glass your way in greeting before turning back to his frothy beer.

/else if not:

A hunky bullman — or ram, since he's sporting big curled horns — is sitting in the corner but he clearly doesn't know you. He looks like he's had a long day.

New Introductions

New text for meeting Yancy in other areas; cuts out his introduction text in the Milker area.

[Bull/Ram] - Ten Ton Gym

// An introduction never hurt anyone.

"My name's Yancy, and no, I'm not a nancy." The shirtless New Texan doesn't toss you a look, yet primed his one-liner before you even finished walking close. It's apparent that Yancy here must get that a lot; you {bimbo|check out his thick, bulging shorts|nod} and {bimbo|jut out your [pc.chest] and [pc.ass] to try and look seductive|straighten up your back}.

"{pc is a hard|Alright nancy, my name is [pc.name]. Now, how about you look me in the eye before you leap to assumptions?|Nice to meet you, Yancy. I'm [pc.name].}"

Yancy nearly drops the weights, when you speak up; the weight bar clanks against its rests but nearly gets knocked free when he sits up, raking his horns against the pole.

"You're the one Ogram mentioned arriving, right?" The bull-ram juts a finger out at you, taking you in for a moment before lowering his hand and digit. "Sorry about that. I'm used to Quenton or the guys teasing me every once in a while. They like to get a rise out of me from time-to-time... though I think it's just because they're jealous I fuck and milk more girls than most of them sleep with over a whole year."

Yancy's lips curl with a confident smile, reaching his hand out. {pc is hard|You stare at it, not offering your own hand. Eventually, Yancy gets the point with a frown and lets his hand fall.|You take it, shaking it.}

"Well, I take it you're not here to talk too much, right?" He runs a hand through his short blonde hair and over the horn that had scraped the bar. His finger taps the tip, giving a small shake of his head as if trying to get sweat or water out of his ears. "If you are, let's make it quick."

// Feeds into his Gym content menu; offers [Appearance], [Chat], [Sex?]/[Sex], [Drill], and [Leave].

[Bull/Ram] - Bar

// An introduction never hurt anyone.

Stepping your way around the other patrons, you arrive at the ram-horned male's booth in seconds. But before you can get a word in, he turns his blonde-haired head your way and points a finger accusingly.

"My name's Yancy, and no, I'm not a nancy.{pc has tits| When I clock out, I'm done milking people. So if you're looking for a private session or something, you've got the wrong guy."| If you're here because I milked your girlfriend or something, I have to tell you that it's just business alright?"}

You're not quite sure how to feel about his assumptions.{pc has tits & is bimbo| Like, you'd love to have your titties milked by a big strong hunk. But that's, like, really not why you're here.} You introduce yourself while he sips on his drink, waiting until those blue eyes of his drift back and study you. His mug — filled with {pc has viewed orders of the bar|Milk Stout|a dark alcohol} — clanks onto the table and he apologetically extends his hand.

"Sorry about that," he grumbles. "I'm not... really used to any company when I'm winding down for the night. What can I do for you?"

Milker Additions

[Appearance]

// Just an appearance description for Yancy so that the PC can easily call up how he looks instead of sorting through his scenes + relying on his image.

// Additionally, Yancy's normal scene IIRC involves mentioning his basic

Looking closely, Yancy is — like you might expect — a pretty traditional New Texan: tall, well-built, and fair-skinned with a killer-sized horse cock. The milker attendant is nude from head-to-toe but keeps a pill bottle close at hand or in-hand depending on when he's getting ready to work. Both of his horns curve around his sheepish ears, neatly-kept and dully pointed along his cheekbones. Short blonde hair lets his blue eyes see everyone and everything entering his end of the barn, keeping his youthful energy alert and ready to spring to the ready for new customers. Unlike others who've undergone the treatment, however, Yancy lacks a tail or any other outwardly bullish features. In fact, you'd argue he's a prime specimen for someone enduring the and coming out largely only beefed up.

However while the Treatment failed to morph his overall body, it's apparent that the ram-bull is easily ready to fuck and flood senses with his pheromones. His smell stands out even from your distance; a pleasing and charming scent that tries to coax out the submissiveness in a person. It's not hard to understand how he keeps so many huge-chested girls happy and wrapped around his fingers until their tits are nice and empty.

// Grey out [Appearance] until another option is picked.

[Talk]

// Actually, you'd like to chat with him for a bit.

"Huh?" {if first time talking to him at work|Yancy's jaw drops in disbelief.|Yancy isn't quite used to chatting at work, it seems.} He takes a look around, resting his right hand on his hip after another moment.

"Well, my bosses aren't lurking around so I guess it's fine. But only if you keep it quick, alright?"

// Offers [How'sHisDay] and [Hangout]. Offers [Back], without text for it. Returns to the player choice menu if used.

[How'sHisDay]

"Are you{bimbo, like,} having any trouble today?" You set your hands on your [pc.hips], half-mirroring his own stance. "{bimbo or not|Have you, like, been fucking any lucky guys or girls with that thick dick of yours? Or, uh, are you hoping to stick it in someone special?|Or is everything going smoothly?}"

Yancy rolls his eyes, letting go of his hips and grabbing his horn wholeheartedly. "Well, I did have this {random output|analfiend lizard tourist throwing his ass back at me while I milked him. He didn't produce a ton of milk but it was interesting|thick-thighed, black-haired girl just starting the treatment about an hour ago. She sucked me damn near dry! As fun as that was, I still feel a little weak-legged|Gianna nearly walked in on me and Cora messing around during our break! Carrie is always so loud... one of these days, when we get caught, I'll say fuck it. Maybe start dating them; the ultimate fantasy is having two hot, red-headed sisters for each arm, after all}. Aside from that, it hasn't been too crazy. Just another day at the milking barn, you know?"

// Greys out; allows selecting [Hangout]. Can't redo until next-encounter/talk with Yancy.

[Hangout?]

"If you're free, how about the two of us{pc is bimbo, you know, fuck| hangout} later? {pc has met Yancy at any other location|He's off later, right?|He needs to take a break sometime, right?}"

Yancy looks over at the nearby wall and a digital clock dangling on it, then back to you. "Well, I guess that's fine. I do about three or four hours of workout to unwind all my [silly|BIG, HEAVY GAY DICK ENERGY|work stress] and then the rest of my night drinking. I get off at 14:00, so meet me later.{pc is bimbo| As for fucking, well... we'll see. If you can find an excuse to hook up for a thorough milking, we could do something here and now."}

// Greys out [Hangout?]; can be re-selected after [How'sHisDay] or if the player recycles the [Talk] menu that session.
