

Types of Colleges/Universities

1. Using the College Board website and the Big Future tool, match the words with the definitions.

Types	Definitions
1. Public 2. Private 3. For Profit 4. Four Year 5. Two Year 6. Liberal Arts College 7. Universities 8. Community Colleges 9. Vocational/Technical/Career 10. Special Focus colleges 11. Arts Colleges	A. In addition to regular courses, it offers training in photography, dance, theater or fashion design. B. Leads to a certificate or associate degree. C. Businesses that offer a variety of specialized programs for careers. Credits may not transfer to other schools. D. Usually offer lower tuition rates (especially for residents). Funded by local and state governments. E. Leads to a bachelor degree. F. Most are private and offer a broad range of courses like history, literature, language, math and life sciences. G. Are often larger in size and offer master's and doctoral degrees. H. Helps you transfer to a four year and often an affordable option. I. Specialized options in two years, such as firefighting culinary arts or dental hygiene. J. Private donations at these schools can often lead to generous financial aid packages. K. Religiously-affiliated, single sex, historically black university/colleges

2. Using the College Board web site and the College Search tool, name three of the filters used to assist in college searches.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

3. Using www.niche.com and US News college Ranking list the top 10 universities in your program/career

Getting to know yourself!

4. Go to Corsava.com. On the homepage, watch the video for students. Complete the phrases.

1. _____ your priorities.
2. _____ the _____.
3. Control your _____.

5. In 150 words (just like the space for activities on the application), explain why understanding types of colleges and understanding yourself is pinnacle to your college research.