To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to recommend Sky Starling, who we have had the pleasure of working with through my experience as a client of Moreno Studio. During our time having custom clothing made, Sky consistently played an essential role in ensuring that every appointment, fitting, and final product met the highest standard of service and professionalism.

From a client's perspective, she is incredibly organized, attentive, and thoughtful. She has a natural ability to coordinate details seamlessly and make the entire custom process feel effortless. Whether managing scheduling, communicating updates, or assisting during fittings, she always approached each interaction with warmth, efficiency, and genuine care.

What stood out most to me was her strong sense of style and understanding of the luxury clothing environment. She clearly understands the importance of presentation, precision, and personalized service. Her professionalism and attention to detail elevate the entire experience and reflect exceptionally well on the brand she represents.

Any brand would be fortunate to have someone with her work ethic, client awareness, and dedication to quality. I have no doubt she will bring the same level of excellence and professionalism to her next role.

Sincerely,

Tate and Annabelle Ratledge
