

A pakistani fashion products company

Subject line: I can help you make more money

Assalamo Allaikum. Hope you are doing well in your business.

Let's get right into it.

My name is Muhammad Aqeel. I am a copywriter and my area of interest is anti-aging products. I was performing my research when I came across your website. I noticed some mistakes you were making while marketing your Product

First of all, the design of your website is in no way effective for attracting attention.

Secondly, you are focusing on too many things. This normally reduces credibility as it shows that you're not an expert in any of the products you provide.

There were other mistakes too but for that i will have to talk to you in detail.

Now back to the point, I am a copywriter looking for clients. And I can offer you my services if you are interested.

For more details email me and we can discuss further. Or maybe even schedule a zoom call.

best regards

Muhammad Aqil.
