

Reading Assignment for students entering Third Grade

Book Talk!

Select a book to read this summer. There are many, many great books out there so search for something fun. Think about exploring a new genre or author. You could visit the library or borrow a book from a friend. Be sure to choose a book that is possible for your child to read independently or with minimal assistance.

When you finish reading the book, fill out the “Book Talk” form. You can type the form or print it and write it by hand. Bring this form with you on the first day of school. You will read it to the class sometime during the first week and share your thoughts on the book you read. This is mandatory and will be your child’s first reading grade of the school year.
