

FUTURE PROJECT: DEPART (worksheet)

Depart: Where materials from projects go when they are no longer of use, value, or interest.

Describe a project you are about to make in 3–5 sentences:

Where will the materials for your project go when they are no longer of use, value, or interest?

How does this connect to the capacity/capacities you wish to embody?

What choices will you (have to) make when determining the departure of your project?

Does the departure of your project contribute to the meaning of your project?

Can the departure of your project allow you to knowingly perpetuate the worlds that you want to see?
