Subject: How many hours has inability to concentrate wasted for you?

Whenever you've consumed that extra cup of coffee, it may help a little bit though it may leave you feeling jittery... and makes you leave your desk to use the toilet.

We've all been there. Sitting on your laptop just thinking about a whole lot of other things you could be doing besides focusing on the task at hand. Maybe you check your phone and go look at what your friend is doing out in the bahamas. Maybe you check your email to see a bunch of spam that you wonder about where it came from. Or just maybe you're just bored out of your mind and wondering what you will have for dinner.

Either way you're annoyed with how much time you have wasted thinking about other things and not getting enough done. Between you & me, I found an easier way to deal with not being able to concentrate. No it's not adderal, it's not meditation ,and it's not that extra cup of coffee either. While those things may help temporarily, the problem always comes back.

If you want to find out how you can focus on the task at hand and stop being distracted Click here and you will see this one thing that has made these top level business men get more done then you can think of.

Subject: The number one thing that kills productivity in your business

There you are sitting there on your computer... trying to study or trying to get something done for work, just the usual day for you and then out of nowhere... your MIND starts thinking of a million different things that aren't related to the task at hand!

How annoying is to be sitting there looking at how 30 minutes have passed and you haven't even put a inch into your work?

We've all been there. It seems that our cell phones call out to us just begging to be picked up. 9/10 you listen and guess what? You. Waste. Time. Now when you lay in bed you're pissed off because you just cant seem to concentrate.

No, coffee is not the answer, nor is meditating, nor just going to the doctor for adhd medicine. The solution to your problem relies on something that's already in your brain that has deficiency.

If you want to know how you can immediately start to focus and get 10x more done

Subject: How The Top Copywriters Get More Done In Less Time

Have you ever wondered how the high level copywriters get to where they are at and are able to get a lot done in seemingly little time? I'm sure you have, but it's something so obvious it's often overlooked

The way they are able to get more done is because they have a great natural ability to focus. That's right, they are able to concentrate on one thing and get a lot done in that small time frame.

How are they able to do this so effectively? Well it all started from a Doctor named Dr. X. One day, Dr. X really had trouble focusing on doing paperwork for patients. He had just transitioned from a hospital to a private practice so there was LOTS to do. Dr. X tried the usual: drinking more caffeine than usual, taking cold showers, meditating, and definitely was not going to prescribe himself any adhd medicine!

All of those things may have masked the problem a little bit, but it didn't solve anything. Determined, he started thinking of ways he can naturally enhance his focus and not have any of that adhd brain fog that slips into his mind. After countless hours and days/weeks he finally came up with a solution. The solution was something so obvious to him, he was pissed for how long it took him to finally realize

If you want to see how Dr. X was able to improve his focus in just a few short days and start getting 10x done in less time

Subject: want to make profitable ads with just a few CLICKS?

Wouldn't it be nice to create winning ads by just pressing a button?

I get it. Creating ads/landing pages can take hours out of your day especially if you're just starting out

I know you're super excited to start making your first money thats flows into your business like a river. I also understand that it's best to keep clients coming in but you might think you have to take chunks out of your day just to serve one. I really want you to be successful, so I came up with a solution to create these ads in literally 15 minutes or less.

About a year ago, I was sitting on my laptop stressed because I kept staying up super late to serve these clients, and while I was happy to do that, I just wasn't getting enough sleep and my brain wasn't at full 100% capacity. I could literally feel my eyes closing no matter how hard I tried staying up.

I definitely wasn't going to drink more coffee, I definitely did NOT feel like going to sleep until I got my work done, and I FOR SURE wasn't going to take a cold shower.

I really needed to find a way to make this much faster for me. I then came up with a AHA moment. What if I had a software that created my ads for me, while still retaining the efficiency of the ads and not having it sound like a robot.

I then thought to myself "I don't have time to create a software... so what if I could partner with somebody who already has one?"

After searching online for hours, I found someone that has the same values as me, and the save motivation to make things simpler for the lives of countless entrepreneurs.

I would like to offer you a FREE 14 day trial to "Funnel Scripts" to help you starting making money faster and give you more time to outreach those high paying clients.

I wanted to make this BETTER THAN FREE by also including a landing page builders course that normally costs $2000, as well as training from Jim Edwards that teaches you how to make this thing work for you rather than you trying to work it. I would also like to give you 100 more FREE templates for a number of different industries, so you don't feel stuck on "will this work for my niche?"

You can receive all this just for saying "maybe"

And for being a motivated action taker, I will even include a personalized plan for you to start capturing traffic and converting them into sales (FREE)

Click here to get all this cool FREE stuff and jumpstart your business faster than road runner!

Subject: They say dehydration causes headaches... but this does as well

How often do you feel stuck staring at your laptop... just thinking of what to write on your ads/landing pages?

How many times have you thought "I can't do this, I literally feel like I have no good ideas on what to write?"

I'll let you in on a little secret... I've had that same feeling... countless times... even after doing this for years.

I understand it gets so frustrating especially after watching so many training videos it just seems like you can't move the needle... no matter how hard you try.

I want to make life so much easier for you... so I partnered with somebody that has a software you can use to create high level ads and copy for your landing pages.

A lot of people think using AI is some sort of cheating device that will replace peoples jobs and take over the world, and I want to tell you thats NOT the case. If used correctly, it can accelerate your growth and make your work much more faster and reliable than you just sitting at your desk for hours doing more research.

I took notice on how you have been watching all the trainings, and completing all the homework and let me tell you that I am PROUD that you're doing the work to become the best version of yourself.

Since you have been working soooo hard I want to offer you a FREE 14 day trial to "Funnel Scripts" so you can start generating profitable ads for your business and watch your bank account grow!

PLUS I would like to add in a FREE live training from the founder of this software “Jim Edwards” showing you the most efficient way to use this for your business, as well as proven tested examples of many different industries on ads you can model after.

I love to reward action takers, and one day I want to see your name all over social media about how your business reached the 7 figure mark.

Click here for your FREE 14 trial of “Funnel Scripts” and also receive these super cool bonuses that I have for you.

P.S. I won't be doing this for too long, since I believe if I always had it accessible then it won't be as valuable.

Are you ready to start taking the necessary steps to improving your life?
