

Introduction

Share the book title and author.

Example: I read the book Please Please the Bees by Gerald Kelly.

My name is _____ . I read the book _____ by _____ .

Summary

Short summary introducing the main idea and characters. Ask a question to get the reader interested.

Example: Benedict the Bear loves his honey, but what will happen with the bees stop making honey for Benedict?

This book is about _____.

Review

Share one reason you like the book and one piece of evidence.

Example: I liked this book because it taught a good lesson about working together.

Ideas:

It has really good pictures. (share your favorite picture)

It has a good message that teaches you about....

I liked the characters (which characters and why)

The story was exciting (explain how/why without spoiling the end)

I liked this book because _____

Vocabulary Word

Find one word from the book that a child may not know and define the word.

Example: One word you should know before reading the book is discouraged The word discouraged means to lose confidence.

One word you should know before reading this book is the word _____ . The word _____ means _____ .

Rating

Give a star rating (4 or 5 only) and one reason the student should read the book.

Example: I give this book 5 out of 5 stars. I think you should read it because the characters are awesome and it is really fun to read.

I give this book _____ out of 5 stars. I think you should read it because _____.

Describe

Think of 3 words that describe your book.