

ARTICLE IV OF THE CONSTITUTION OF DIXIE IS AMENDED BY ADDING THE FOLLOWING SECTION:

Section 14.

(a) No formal action taken by a member of the cabinet shall be overruled through an executive order by the governor. In the event of conflict between an executive order and departmental policy established by a member of the cabinet, the departmental policy established by the cabinet member shall reign supreme.

(b) The Legislature may, through resolution and a majority of members affirming said resolution, amend, create, or invalidate departmental policy.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the judiciary from evaluating departmental policy.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the Governor from taking executive action, except as provided in subsection (a).
