

These resources are to support anyone who's interested in learning more about abolition. The texts vary, and there are many different viewpoints and approaches to theorizing and working toward abolition. Some of what is included doesn't mention abolition specifically but may offer some historical and political education. Use what you can. I'll keep updating this as I have time. -A.

Update 6/3/20: SA Smythe offered to co-develop this list. We've reorganized it based on themes and added more non-U.S. and gendered perspectives. If something interests you, gather with a few others to read/think collectively!

NB: Several of these texts are available for free at your local library or if you put "Title + PDF" in your search engines. Some are open access & linked below. If you would like to purchase any texts, please consider using non-Amazon sources, and support your local independent bookstores.
