

The legend of the river

Rigoberta was a pig with human face and body of unicorn. She liked to go to the river, and one day when she was in the river a mysterious old man started to fly. That man was called Rumaldo and he had a big problem. Rigoberta started to fly too, and she moved closer to the man.

- What's your problem? asked Rigoberta to the man with a serious face.

-I have a big problem, the pigcorn sect is chasing me. They want to transform me in an abomination.

Then, a mysterious fog appeared, and from inside a giant "pigcorn" wearing a tunic appeared.

- My name is mysterious lord, join us, join our religion, become a "pigcorn"!- said the giant monster.

-No!! I want to be human.-Said Rumaldo.

-Let him go!!- Shouted Rigoberta to Mysterious lord.

Suddenly the sun set, and it started the night. More mysterious "pigcorns" appeared, and rounded Rumaldo and Rigoberta. There wasn't escape, Rigoberta was bewildered "what's happening?".

Mysterious lord took Rumaldo and Rigoberta and they left their country. Four long hours later they appeared in a new world, the pigcorn world. All was of pink colour, the houses, the water, the sky, the rain and a lot of things. From the clouds baby pigcorns got born when there was a rainy weather and with sunny weather the old pigcorns get rid of the work as a pigcorn and they evaporate and disappear in the clouds. Rumaldo saw a button and he pushed it, and suddenly the temperature increase, as far as touching the 50 centigrades and all the pigcorns were converted in flavourful popcorns for Rumaldo and Rigoberta.

On the coast of the world there was a mysterious giant screen to see films, and next to this they have a mysterious videoclub to take mysterious films and to see it them. All the pigcorns were converted on popcorns so Rumaldo and Rigoberta started to see the films eating them.

- Those popcorns are the best popcorns I had never taste!

-Oh yes, I go alone with you. They have a special flavour.

-Yes it seems that the popcorns had been prepared with bacon!

Suddenly, they noticed that the people of the cinema started to become pigcorns. All the people were worried and Rigoberta and Rumaldo realised that they can't live being pigcorns so they commit a suicide. When the real unicorns found them, they didn't know what to do and they called Petardona for help them.

But Petardona was a pigcorn too, so they decide to kill all the pigcorn near them. When they finished, they realised that all the people were pigcorns, so they dig a cave in a river, the same river where Rigoberta and Rumaldo met some hours ago.
