

Hey Cristopher

My friends brought up a topic about you at a cafe yesterday, you sounded fascinating, I was impressed and decided to research about you on Youtube.

I really liked how you gave a 96% recovery rate about the breakup window in your recent video "She Won't Let You Go No Contact". That builds a level of trust with your male audience and encourages them to try it out in that situation

However,

I noticed that you don't create vivid images of your reader's dream state in your captions which makes your social media advertising strategies inefficient and compelling enough and leads to a reduced amount of sales for your "Atomic Attraction" book.

I saw a great opportunity to increase traffic to your website by making a tweak to your advertisement posts.

I read a particular line in a book a long time ago and having looked at your problem relit a flame in my mind about a technique known as social media "Upheaval" posts.

This technique could help you increase your revenue, followers and benefit you by helping you sell your product.

I've prepared something for you using this technique, let me know with a "Yes" or any other response for me to polish it up and send it over.

Thanks for your time, I look forward to hearing back from you soon.

Best,

Yash
