

Sacred Energy Malas

Custom Design by David Romanoff

“Transparency in Communication”

Sacred Wisdom Mala: Spiritual Clarity & Divine Communication

This powerful mala combines the transcendent energy of Amethyst—a stone of spiritual protection and higher wisdom that purifies the aura, enhances intuition, and brings peaceful sleep—with the celestial clarity of Selenite, which opens pathways to angelic guidance and divine light. Kyanite acts as an energetic bridge, instantly aligning the chakras while enhancing psychic abilities and harmonious communication, requiring no cleansing as it never retains negativity. The soothing presence of Chrysocolla, the "Goddess Stone," encourages compassionate expression and emotional healing, teaching the power of gentle strength and truthful communication. Set in gold, this mala becomes a radiant conductor of solar energy, attracting success and enlightenment while amplifying the stones' properties, or in silver, it channels lunar intuition and emotional balance, creating a sacred connection to cosmic flow. Together, these stones form a transformative tool for spiritual growth, psychic development, and authentic self-expression—ideal for healers, teachers, and seekers of higher wisdom.

Wear this mala to:

- Shield your energy while deepening meditation
- Enhance clairvoyance and connection to spirit guides
- Speak your truth with compassion and confidence
- Align your chakras and clear mental fog
- Access ancient wisdom while staying grounded

What are Sacred Energy Malas?

Mala beads are a string of beads traditionally used in prayer and meditation. Each custom sacred energy mala designed by David Romanoff has been deeply thought out and meditated on. All the stones have been carefully selected so that each mala exudes a desired energy. When crystals are placed directly on your body, they have a powerful vibratory effect that surges from the crystal to you. According to the law of physics, thoughts direct energy and energy follows thought. Each energy mala serves as a tool to help the thoughts of our consciousness connect with our body. Most of our malas are traditional 108 bead japa malas. However, some have 90 beads or less to achieve a desired length.

These malas have been smudged and cleansed with sage and palo santo prior to making them, to purify the stones. They have sat through a full sun and moon cycle, as well as received a sound bath which allows them to vibrate at their highest frequency.

It is our hope that your mala will bring you great joy and fill your life with positive energy.

About the stones & metals

AMETHYST

Amethyst represent the hidden power and of owner who will decide to wear this. It is a powerhouse stone. It is used as a dream stone and to help insomnia. Put an amethyst under your pillow to bring about pleasant dreams, or rub it across your forehead to offer relief from a headache. It is used as a meditation aid when worn as a necklace. Amethyst is a gemstone often worn by healers, as it has the power to focus energy. Amethyst is used for problems in the blood and in breathing problems. Amethyst crystal clusters are used to keep the air and life force in the home clean and positive. Amethyst helps overcome fears and cravings. Its inherent high frequency purifies the aura of any negative energy or attachments, and creates a protective shield of Light around the body, allowing one to remain clear and centered while opening to spiritual direction. It initiates wisdom and greater understanding, and is a stone of comfort for those grieving the loss of a loved one. Amethyst's ability to expand the higher mind also enhances one's creativity and passion. It strengthens the imagination and intuition, and refines the thinking processes. It is a talisman of focus and success. It acts as a barrier against lower energies, psychic attack, geopathic stress and unhealthy environments.

SELENITE

Selenite is celebrated for the transparency and ethereal radiance its crystals provide. Like the moon, it reflects a pure beam of white light into any environment in which it rests, and is believed to contain the liquid Light of Spirit inhabiting the place between light and matter. Selenite inspires a profound peace, and carries a fine, high frequency and intensity of energy that surpasses nearly all stones for opening, clearing, and activating the Crown and Higher Crown Chakras. It is ideal for meditation, spiritual work, connecting to ancient wisdom and knowledge, and is one of the best crystals for accessing one's spirit guides and the angelic realm. Selenite is a wonderful talisman for women, bringing radiance and harmony, and support through all cycles of life. Selenite may be used to calm and stabilize erratic emotions, and to clear away confusion, feelings of inadequacy, jealousy, doubt or other forms of negativity. Selenite brings divine light into everything it touches and stimulates the clearest state of mind attainable.

KYANITE

The high vibration and rapid transfers of energy from Kyanite create pathways where none existed before. Like a universal bridge, it is an extraordinary crystal of connection, opening the mind centers, enhancing telepathic and psychic abilities, bridging gaps in all communication efforts, and providing a link for transmitting or receiving healing energy. It immediately aligns the chakras and subtle bodies, bringing tranquility and a calming effect to the whole being. Like Citrine, Kyanite is one of the two minerals on the planet that neither accumulates nor retains negative energy, and therefore never needs cleansing. Kyanite inspires loyalty and fair treatment to others. It assists in working through disagreements and disputes, and can aid in repairing damaged relationships. It is beneficial in negotiations, diplomatic missions, arbitration and other forms of communication between disharmonious people, allowing disparate energies to move into resonance and find a common frequency. Kyanite's frequency encourages the examination of all aspects of oneself, the various interests, skills and knowledge that creates the uniqueness of one's identity, and how it can be used for one's Soul path on Earth and in finding a life-fulfilling vocation. It encourages listening to intuitive guidance and living with integrity of purpose.

CHRYSOCOLLA

Chrysocolla is first and foremost a Stone of Communication. Its very essence is devoted to expression, empowerment and teaching. The serenity of its turquoise-blue color discharges negative energies, calms, and allows truth and inner wisdom to surface and be heard. A peaceful stone, it emphasizes the power our words and actions have on those around us, and encourages compassion and strengthening of character. Chrysocolla is a stone of empowerment of the life force energies, teaching that genuine power is best expressed through gentleness. It is a stone of the Goddess, and those who resonate with it will likely feel her ancient and enduring energies rising within themselves. It is the stone of forgiveness, peace, and the strengthening of emotional bonds. It encourages compassion, and helps us recover our natural spontaneity. Chrysocolla is a teaching stone, encouraging us to reveal our highest knowledge so that others may benefit from our experiences. This may come in the form of speaking lovingly to a friend and offering insights, a teacher to a student, or by simply modeling the power of words, chosen wisely with knowledge of their impact in the world.

GOLD is the color of success, achievement and triumph. Associated with abundance and prosperity, luxury and quality, prestige and sophistication, value and elegance. It is linked to masculine energy and the power of the sun, compared to silver which is associated with feminine energy and the sensitivity of the moon. Optimistic and positive, gold adds richness and warmth to everything with which it is associated - it illuminates and enhances other things around it. At the uppermost level, this is a color which is associated with higher ideals, wisdom, understanding and enlightenment. It inspires knowledge, spirituality and a deep understanding of the self and the soul. Gold is generous and giving, compassionate and loving, the benefactor or patron, sharing its wisdom, knowledge and wealth with others.

SILVER is the metal of the moon. Like the moon and water, silver is reflective and used to mirror the soul bringing people calm and balance. Silver is used to 'draw down the moon' during lunar ceremonies, giving the wearer use of the moons energy and protecting them from negativity. Silver's connection to the spiritual life is mostly seen in traditional cultures where people live in union and deep respect for the earth. For example, the Tibetans spiritual silver jewelry is often combined with gemstones and crystals which then resonate their healing vibrations more strongly. Another aspect of the silver natural healing belief is that wearing this jewelry brings the wearer more in tune with the vibrations and flow of the universe. It is the metal of emotions, love and healing.

Care Instructions for Your Sacred Mala Jewelry

To preserve the beauty and energy of your mala, please follow these guidelines:

- Storage : Keep your mala in its custom box when not in use to protect it from damage.
- Avoid Water : Do not shower, swim, or submerge your mala in water.
- Handle with Care : Be mindful when leaning forward, as the mala can snag on objects and risk breaking.
- Tassel Care : Avoid bunching up tassels to prevent fraying. If needed, gently steam tassels to restore their shape.
- Energetic Cleansing :
 - Charge the crystals in sunlight to enhance their vibration.
 - Smudge with sage periodically to clear stagnant energy.
 - Supercharge your mala with a sound bath (using instruments or a meditative soundtrack).
- If Your Mala Breaks :
 - Collect ALL pieces and ship them back for free restringing.
 - Missing pieces may incur an additional replacement fee.

By caring for your mala with intention, it will continue to support your practice for years to come.

About the Artist

David Romanoff has been inspired his entire life through art and music. From a young age he was creating art pieces using different mediums as his canvas.

Creating these energy malas is a culmination of a true love for art and jewelry, as well as a desire to learn about the many facets of these powerful energy stones. The creation process is done with absolute intent and is a form of meditation for David. Each mala requires and deserves complete focus, so that all the elements will blend together harmoniously.

David has been a student and teacher of Aikido, Budo, and the philosophies therein, for more than 25 years. Aiki meaning the harmony of nature. A practitioner of Zazen meditation is a large part of his daily routine. "The art of focused breathing is paramount to channeling creative life giving energies."

They are a true labor of love....
