If you're feeling high energy: This moon could bring active energy to get things done and be social. We're thinking more about our businesses' impact and may feel the need to share our thoughts and opinions. Use that to create compelling content and build influence in your community. If you're less social, you can use this moon to plan your next moves along with the greater design of your impact. Building an empire is wonderful, but are you truly happy? Are you living up to your own goals and dreams? What is the deeper meaning of your work? If you're feeling social, this is a super supportive moon for making a difference in other people's lives!

If you're feeling low energy: This moon can serve as a space of deep reflection about what you really want and what is really important in life. If there are humanitarian causes you care about, some research or discussion could be a great way to get your intellectual and creative juices flowing. You might come across some information or an idea that sets you off on an epic journey. Think of why you do your good work and why it's important to be a positive force in a world so fraught with pain.

Social Media:

- Share your message and market openly the content you created during the precious Capricorn Moon. Promotional materials get a boost now.
- Showing up in your community through a live stream, challenge, or public event
- Speak about what is most important to you and what you want to rally others towards
- Let your passion lead and your voice ring far and true

Moon Boost:

Saturn in Aquarius brings stability and foundation to our communities, helping us grow a consistent income and connection with others who share our values.

Gemini Mars gives us a boost to our communications and speeds things up on the business front. This can make the moon a bit more touchy but also allows for a flow of passionate ideas to come through.

Void Moon begins at 10:53 pm PST [Aquarius to Pisces]

- A suspended space between the logical and artistic minds
- Good time for daydreaming the bigger picture of your life
- Hold off: on any big announcements/launches as this energy makes us distracted and like we're lingering in limbo

- Take small, mindful steps forward to navigate fogginess and confusion
- Slow down and be introspective, calling yourself back home to your path and the divine purpose you know you're meant for
- Pay attention to dreams, synchronistic events and other intuitive messages that might come through psychically
- Rest and rejuvenate your body, mind and soul - you've been through a lot

If you're in a high energy/work mood: Lean into the creative, soulful abyss of this moon's energy and see where it takes you. Get lost in the creative oceans of your mind and soul and know that you have the whole universe to play with. Have fun exploring your own spiritual abilities, powers of manifestation and divine creative artistry. If you've wanted to get the ball rolling and build momentum on a project, this moon can help you create content that is ultra-aligned with your vision and authentic to you.

If you're in a low energy/self-care mood: If you feel like you're spinning wheels trying to work and getting nothing done, it's time to stop forcing. Lean into stillness and rejuvenation. This is a good moon to perform any rituals for releasing emotion and heaviness, letting illusions dissolve and pouring positivity into the crevices of your being. Lifting judgement from our soul grants us access to a power that links us with divine power and with this we can create beautiful works of art.

Social Media & Clients:

- Create safe spaces to explore, express and expunge our deepest trauma so we can detach ourselves from all that prevents our growth.
- These moons are times of emotional vulnerability and the messages we put out to make an imprint on those who integrate them into themselves.
- Our client work can greatly benefit from kindness and understanding above judgment.

Moon Boosts:

Pisces Neptune & Jupiter

- Neptune: Dreamy, creative, forgiving, compassionate, boost to intuition and spiritual abilities
- Jupiter brings an increase of hope and dreaminess, like anything we put our heart and soul into will flourish with abundance

Mercury Opposition Mars

This transit comes with a bit of a warning label: think before you speak! We might be particularly argumentative under this influence, say things that aren't necessary (even if true) and end up doing damage control with others. Ironically, with the truth-speaking energy of these planets together, we can invite constructive criticism from others - but only if we're ready to receive it.

Wednesday, November 30

First Quarter in Pisces - All Day

Thursday, December 1

Void Moon from 6:44 - 8:40 pm PST (Pisces to Aries)

- Vulnerable, emotional space, great for self-care sessions
- Hold off: on any big announcements/launches as this energy makes us distracted and like we're lingering in limbo
- Water to Fire = cleansing and releasing

First Quarter in Aries begins at 8:41 pm PST

Social Rocket Boots

- Perfect for big promotions and launches that include challenges, boot camps and build excitement towards a cart close near the next full moon
- Excellent energy for content creation, brainstorming, initiating a project
- High creative drive that could create some frustration and discomfort if you don't have a way to channel the energy - let it flow!
- Move your body, express yourself through creative arts or hobbies, dance, exercise, generate fire energy with rituals, prayer, meditations etc.
- First Quarter: Strong push for building momentum, increasing energy

If you're high energy/in work mood: The First Quarter mixed with Aries is a great opportunity to actively promote your business and build momentum, so if you have wanted to launch that program you're so passionate about, this energy is fully supportive of you shouting about it from the rooftops! Get in touch with your inner fire by locating the area of your chart where Aries sits and being honest about what motivates and drives you. The more truthful and brazen you can be about what you want and how you're going to get it, the more you'll feel this Aries Moon and the more it will empower you to take charge of your business.

If you're low energy/ in a self-care mood: Spend time with passion projects that inspire you, dance with music that lights you up and moves your body physically to wake yourself up. This is especially useful if you're feeling low but you have responsibilities to attend to. Sometimes all we need is a 'fire ritual' that wakes up our spirit and mobilizes us. If you're experiencing burnout and need a time out, this moon can be used as a chance to get to know yourself better and your ability to stand up for your needs, boundaries and limits. Deciding what self-care looks like for you can be extra energizing during this moon, especially if you take action and prioritize your joy.

Social Media & Clients:

- Use this to generate excitement, make an announcement, have a flash sale, open a cart, kick off an event, close a cart,
- Get people to sign up for an event, take action, or rally behind a cause that's important to you.

- Talk about anything that you and your audience find irritating, frustrating or plain pisses you off about your industry.
- Encourage building up your people as they face a breakthrough.
- Create a clear, concise Call to Action to make it easy for your people to say yes to your offer.
- Think short bursts, and only on what's most important to MOVE you and them FORWARD.

Moon Boost:

Aries Chiron: We're focused on our own wounds and how they've held us back from living our authenticity. How can we move through them and heal?

Sun, Mercury & Venus in Sagittarius:

- Sun: When the Sun and Moon align in fire, we're growth-oriented and feeling the time of year when we're contemplating the year ahead of us. This energy urges us to look deeper at the way we show up in the world (Sun) while also considering our needs (Moon).
- Mercury: Our minds become expanded in Sagittarius and we're calculating all the possibilities and visions for our business. Expect lots of daydreaming!
- Venus: Making and spending money could feel like an adventure now, so be willing to try new things and say yes. Do be mindful to reign in impulsivity if it lacks wisdom and forethought though!

Mercury Square Neptune

This can be a disorienting and confusing transit. We will be more prone to misunderstandings, miscommunications, and needing to re-word our words, directions, and ideas. We may feel more spacey than usual and may find focusing difficult. It's important during this transit that we try to keep our heads clear and our feet on the ground. Any sort of idealizing or sugar-coating anything including our own words and perspectives can make situations worse.

If you find that you have to communicate or disagree with something or someone during this transit, make sure you stick with the facts, don't distract, evade, or withhold information as it can come back to bite you later or add to the confusion and misunderstanding which can make the situation or outcome no what you'd like.

It's important that we try to speak simply, and to keep our work, conversations, and next steps as simple as possible during this transit. What we're seeing is not as it appears and we may in fact choose what appeals to us over what is actually helpful.

When it comes to business, things may not be as they appear, or people may not be who they appear to be. It is best to avoid any major business decisions or dealings during this transit if you can. If you can't make sure that you have as much in writing, use bullet points, and short clear sentences and make sure that you have all the facts before moving forward. If you have to come to an agreement it might be best to have legal or business counsel to go over the documents or agreements or share it with a friend so that you don't miss anything important.

We will be more spiritually and metaphysically inclined during this time, so this can make a great opportunity to pursue spiritual pursuits or subjects, but make sure that you keep your feet on the ground so that we don't get carried away with the fog. Creative or artistic projects can get a nice boost from this transit.

Be mindful of trying to escape, into ideas, people, numbing agents (sex, drugs, alcohol), sleep, or other coping mechanisms, they tend to have a stronger influence at this time and their outcomes longer lasting.

Venus Opposition Mars

Expect to get a mix of creative and frustrating energies with these two desirous planets playing a tug of war with each other. It could feel as if our wants are in direct conflict with others and what they want, which makes it difficult to collaborate effectively on projects. Rather than trying to wrestle with others right now, focus on channelling energy into your creative pursuits and how they ultimately benefit everyone involved.

Friday, December 2

First Quarter in Aries begins - All Day

Saturday, December 3

Void Moon begins at 9:46 pm PST [Aries to Taurus]

- Simmering down from the excitement and thinking more seriously about what needs to be accomplished over the next few days

- Hold off: on any big announcements/launches as this energy makes us distracted and like we're lingering in limbo
- Fire to Earth = putting into practice & structuring

Sun Trine Chiron

If you want to be a leader in healing and overcoming adversity, this transit is potent magic for stepping into this role with strength and vulnerability. People who are healing want to know the rollercoaster you went through to find your peace and the guidance from you to walk them through their own healing process. You have the support of the stars to address wounds with kind tenacity so that you're building confidence while you rest and rejuvenate.

Neptune Direct in Pisces (December 3, 2022 - June 30, 2023)

NEPTUNE DIRECT (and POST RX SHADOW)

22°38' - 27°41'

Direct Until June 30th, 2023

Neptune is making its way through Pisces where it will remain until 2027. This Journey it is taking is quite extraordinary and only happens every 165 years. Neptune in Pisces is here to connect us not only to our intuition but to our subconscious and to all of life on the planet. Neptune is the ruler of the seas (all water on earth) and Pisces is the fish that lives in them. Like a fish we don't notice our environment we aren't aware we're 'IN water' and yet without it, we would not be. All living beings on Earth need water and are made up of water to some extent. We are 70%+ water, and this transit is here to wake us up to who and what we are and the damage that is being done to the world around us. To help us question what is real (as Neptune also rules illusion and delusion) and the ways we have been lying to ourselves or believing the lies of the 'mainstream'.

We have in many ways disconnected ourselves from all of life ignoring the way we are damaging the planet and how each choice we make every day has an impact because we feel sad and depressed at the state of the world, its problems feel too big to solve. But when it comes to Neptune in Pisces the solution comes from within, to acknowledge our internal environment and discern the true from the false within us. To ask ourselves deeper questions and to receive the answers from within us. TO remind us that WE are a part of this source, just like all drops of water are a part of the bigger ocean, we are not separate. Often when life and the state of the world become overwhelming we try to distract ourselves by focusing on things that cannot nourish us, that cannot fulfill the deep hunger and longing we have inside of us for meaning and healing, but with this transit we are being called within, to find our own nourishment and sustenance from within (rather than from outside of us which is contributing to the damage and harm we are seeing in our planet and world on all levels).

This is a time to cultivate your intuition, to listen to your dreams, and to work with yourself to dive deeper into understanding the mechanism and patterns you are repeating (Pisces is also the natural ruler of the 12th house, which is where we hide things from ourselves, and where our subconscious and trauma reside). The way to heal the planet is by more of us working with this unknown and often scary part of ourselves and bringing awareness and healing to it. This will create a ripple effect that has the power to change and heal the world to a magnitude that we cannot yet comprehend. If you are feeling drawn to lean into your own intuition to use it in your work, to use it to work with clients, this is your nudge. The veil between you and source (your intuition) has never been thinner than it is right now.

Ongoing Transits

Jupiter Direct in Pisces (November 23 - December 20, 2022)

28° Pisces 48'

Jupiter is the planet of growth, prosperity, and spirituality feels comfortable in Pisces where the universe's energy can be expressed fully. The influence of this transit is powerful in that it is gifting us with the highest level of knowing spirituality that the human mind can understand. Major downloads are available for us to truly feel the enormity of the universe and the minimality of our existence. It reminds us that everything we're living is connected to the same web of energy that unites us all and that this understanding elevates our ability to play in the material world.

The most powerful application of this energy can be felt when we utilize this knowledge to align with a state of inner fulfillment and happiness. When we let go of the attachment to people and things, we evolve our ability to manifest experiences because instead of grasping tightly for success, we lean into it as something that exists just the same as you yourself do. The money we want to make, the community we want to build, and the meaning we give to our work all can be distilled into the same cosmic particles that make up our world. When we have a deep awareness of this connection we have to all things, our business has more chances to blossom. We release unnecessary, painful attachments to our success as some pie in the sky and instead step into living it on a personal level each and every day.

Sun in Sagittarius (November 22 - December 21, 2022)

During this transit we are inspired and feel a heightened sense of creativity, passion, adventure, and need for personal growth. We want to experience the fullness of our life, and expand our horizons. We know that our exploration of the world will help us to understand and unlock aspects of our own self. We feel alive when we are on the move and free. It can be helpful to focus on the big picture of the smaller aspects of our lives, and projects.

Mercury in Sagittarius (November 17 - December 6, 2022)

This transit is excellent for amplifying our communication, connections, and enjoyment of others. When Mercury moves through Sagittarius we express ourselves with excitement, and enthusiasm and are open to passionate exchanges, discussions, and debates. Mercury helps us to put words and a clearer vision to what lights us on fire and keeps us going in our work. This is a great period to broaden your horizons, explore new studies, take a trip, or simply explore parts of your city or neighborhood and communities that you haven't yet met.

Venus in Sagittarius (November 15 - December 9, 2022)

Venus influences love and money, through our experience of this transit there is an increase in our desire for adventurous and demonstrative love and affection. We are inspired by taking risks, having a good time, extravagance, and feeling more free, fluid and open to new experiences. We want more experiences, and growth and are willing to test the waters a lot more than usual. This also applies when it comes to how we spend our money, and where we are investing it. We want to use our funds for more experiential, spiritual, philosophical and growth-based focuses.

Mars Retrograde in Gemini (October 30, 2022 - January 12, 2023)

25°36' - 8°07' Gemini

As Mars enters Retrograde in Gemini lasting from now and into early next year we may find that not only does our motivation take a significant dip, but our irritations, frustrations, and desire for control may experience an uptick. Mars rules our fight or flight and what we value enough to fight for.

Look to see what house(s) that this Mars Retrograde will be transiting for you, specifically the house and any planets that fall between 5 degrees and 28 degrees Gemini, anything occupying this space will experience more frustrations and distractions than usual.

You may feel at war with your brain and short attention span, or feel an influx of data, information, and input at this time and may struggle to make heads or tails of it. We can find that our usual ability to focus or make sense of things may feel clouded or erratic. This isn't all in your head and is in fact a byproduct of Mars retrograding through our information processing sign of Gemini.

Communications can be affected during this time, and our commitment levels may fluctuate rapidly. It's important to chunk things down into small bits, and focus on one thing at a time, if you are feeling overloaded by information, try to reduce the sources of input, putting distraction blockers on laptops, removing social media apps and notifications from your phone, as well as noise-cancelling headphones, can be helpful. Completing things can feel difficult at this time, but if you reduce the overload, and focus on keeping things simple and in short bursts you can still remain productive during this time and reach your goals.

This transit won't last forever but it will be long enough to likely frustrate you. Don't take anything personally at this time, and become really discriminating as to what news and information sources you take in and trust at this time. On a global level, we may find ourselves in an onslaught of information, and much of it is created to distract and confuse rather than provide information.

As the calendar year changes over, Mars in Gemini will be retrograde during this transition and we might notice a hunger to learn brilliant new ideas, and anxious anticipation to act. It could come on as a ferocious hunger to do amazing things in the world and to involve other people. The potential to team up and tackle larger projects together is a benefit of Mars in Gemini, but because it's retrograde we need to take things slow and focus on smaller tasks and short-term goals. This transit can bring chaotic changes, on-the-fly planning, and impulsivity. The more adaptable we are and able to create alternatives when plans erupt, the better we'll fare through the storms. If we can have the patience right now for ourselves and others, projects will go a lot smoother. It might feel at times as if you're spinning your wheels but not getting much done, or coming up with great ideas but never following through. Know that there is value in thrashing around. You're gaining experience in the sense that 'if something can go wrong, it will' part of business. As a result, you're practicing what it truly means to go with the flow. To lean in when needed and duck when the time is right. Consider this Bootcamp for your work brain.

18°35' Aquarius

This transit will last until March 2023. During this time we will see a surge in the sale and marketing of information, a disassembly of old traditional ways of education, marketing, and media, and an increase in innovation, discovery, and new technology. We will also see an increased interest in Astrology, Psychology, and other consciousness-expanding tools, techniques, practices, and systems. This will be a period of great change. With this transit, there will be a shift from personal interests and wants to what is best for the planet, humanity, and the collective. We will see an even greater impact from our personal choices on the whole of the planet and all species. This will highlight the need for greater personal responsibility and initiate further change in regard to the environment, waste, public health, social support, technology, the rules governing it and the impact of the 'economy' on global, personal, and environmental health.

2020-2023 Saturn Return for those born between

February 1932 - February 1935

January 1962 - December 1964

February 6, 1991 - January 8, 1994

Saturn returns to each sign once every 29 or 30 years for approximately 3 years. Saturn was last in Aquarius from 2/1932 to 2/1935, 1/1962 to 12/1964, and from 2/1991 to 1/1994. Saturn will again be in Aquarius from December 17, 2020 (after a brief stay there from March 21 to July 1, 2020) through March 7, 2023.

Saturn Returns are periods of great change, challenges, and adversity where we will feel the pressure to become more of our own person.

Pluto Direct in Capricorn (October 8, 2022 - May 1, 2023)

Pluto will remain in Capricorn until 2024 (with a brief stint in Aquarius in 2023), over the next 2 years we will see significant changes and transformations in all the areas that Capricorn rules such as governments, rules, foundations, regulations, currencies, economies, resources, money and legacies. This will not be a simple rebuilding or redesigning, the change will come through power struggles, the use of fear for control, uncovering the deep subconscious, and a willingness to surrender or risk great loss for a sense of purpose and meaning.

Pluto is here to help us transform ourselves, find our purpose, and remind us that freedom should never be taken for granted. We may find great conspiracies, abuses of power, and a need to stand up for rights (as rules and laws can be used as coercive measures by those wishing to gain more power and control). This is a time when we are reminded of what's important to us, and that we cannot remain complacent about the things that are of real value. Use these next 2 years to stand strong for what's important to you and to deeply inquire about what you are willing to give up, sacrifice or surrender to live a life of real meaning and significance.

This window also marks the beginning of the Pluto return for the US beginning on February 20, 2022, which will see several conjunctions through 2022 and 2023 triggering changes in government, finance, currency, health care, natural resources, industry, and the core foundations of the country.

I would expect to see a change in currency, government formation, and major foundational changes to the country itself that will impact how the US operates, and how other countries interact with the US.

There are two things that may occur during this period, one is that the US shifts to no longer becoming a world superpower and is surpassed by another country, or it completely restructures and enters a second re-birth.

Mars in Gemini (Pre-Rx Shadow)

Mars in Gemini Pre-Rx Shadow

Pre-Rx Shadow - September 3, 2022 - October 30, 2022

8°07' - 25°36'

Mars is preparing to enter retrograde, during this time we may find that not only does our motivation take a significant dip, but our irritations, frustrations, and desire for control may experience an uptick. Mars rules our fight or flight and what we value enough to fight for.

Look to see what house(s) that this coming Mars Retrograde will be transiting for you, specifically the house and any planets that fall between 5 degrees and 28 degrees Gemini, anything occupying this space will experience more frustrations and distractions than usual.

Pay close attention to how projects and tasks might be slowing down right now and especially take notice of whether tension rises between you and anyone you're working with. There will be a lot of ideas coming from all types of people and staying on track with any one thing could prove frustrating. As we head towards retrograde, it will be important to consider other people's points of view. They might help you come to some important decisions if you let them be involved.

Uranus Retrograde (18° - 14°) (August 24 - December 31, 2022)

18°55' - 14°56' Taurus

look at areas of focus/events that occurred between May 7, 2022- August 24, 2022 to give you insight into what area of life this retrograde will be felt for you

Uranus rules rebellion, war, change, revolution, freedom, confronting fear, speaking our truth. It is 'the great awakener'. This retrograde highlights what doesn't feel aligned and where you're sabotaging and holding yourself back. Be honest about who you are and what you want. Go with your hunches/intuition. Uranus helps to clarify a new direction. Embrace change and 'not knowing'. This period often forces us to deal with our dark side, parts of ourselves that don't align with our values. But if you allow this to move through you when Uranus moves direct you will have the opportunity to make a massive change. Watch out for: Following formulas, systems, and the 'norm'. Systems and structures can tend to feel suffocating at this time. Be careful to not interpret this as a sign that you're not capable or that you've made a poor choice. Personal changes may feel slow or difficult at this time. And the need to feel independent and rebel may be felt strongly right now. Uranus Retrograde can mean massive changes often in areas we weren't expecting or desiring, but it is for your long-term benefit. The truth will set you free. To see what area of your life will be influenced by this retrograde, see your chart and the current transits and locate what house Uranus transit falls under.

Mars in Gemini (August 20 - September 3, 2022)

This is a powerhouse transit and marks an opportunity for significant momentum and success. When Mars passes through Gemini it acts as a catalyst for our mind and mental processes, our abilities of deduction. We are being granted an opportunity to have our big ideas enhanced, showered with a new perspective and we will have the energy to act on them. If you have been feeling stifled in your business or in need of a fresh start, embrace this period and commit to taking big leaps forward, you won't regret it.

Chiron Retrograde (July 19 - December 23, 2022)

16°26' - 11°56' Aries

With Chiron turning retrograde in Aries, we are healing our relationship with all things Aries. From violence in the shadow to assertive action in the light, the energies of Aries are all coming to the fore during this time, requiring our attention to heal any distortions or misdirected lines of energy. In particular, we are examining any wounds we have around taking action, a hallmark of Aries. During this time, our ability to stand up for ourselves is coming into question, our existential courage. Also known as our will to exist, existential courage is a pronouncement of being, a statement of life. If you think back to recent times, has there been a moment where you wanted to act but did not? A time when you were going to stand up for yourself, but you held back? We all have these moments and perhaps less important than our response at the time is how we make meaning and move forward after the fact. As Chiron retrogrades, we continue to gain visibility into these moments of vulnerability while learning about ourselves. We continue to make sense of the healing story of our lives.

When we have existential courage, we are fearless, acting from a space of original boldness. When we are searching for existential courage, perhaps the path is not as clear. The paradoxical truth is that despite what we think, we always have the courage that the moment requires of us, but we may not always be dialled into its frequency. If we think of consciousness like a radio dial, perhaps we are on a different station right when the moment comes. In this period of time, we are healing our ability to switch back to the other station, the station that supports growth, evolution, and development. As we perfect and grow this ability, we come into a deeper resonance with any healing that needs to take place. Not only do we identify the misguided assumptions that have been holding us back, but we transform them into energetic assets that do not weigh us down. On the contrary, they lift us up. No longer do we carry energetic weight around with us. Our only choice is to stand up for ourselves and if we can get to this space during this Chiron retrograde, we will have achieved a significant milestone.

NOTE: It's important to be aware at this time, as Chiron is the wounded healer, and represents the inner wound we all carry, we need to be mindful that we don't direct violence or harm at ourselves (with this being retrograde), that we instead focus on positive internal action to help ourselves overcome our wounds and pain. Often when it comes to trauma the victim, will internalize the reason for the trauma as being because of something they did, said, or are. When Chiron goes retrograde and in Aries nonetheless we may find more trauma coming up, especially in areas where we may need to defend or protect ourselves, or trigger our trauma responses. It is helpful to schedule in self-care, therapy, journaling, or things that help YOU to feel like you're taking an active stance towards your own healing.

Neptune Retrograde in Pisces (June 28 - December 3, 2022)

Unhindered

Neptune now turns retrograde at 25°26' - 22°38'

Each year, Neptune retrogrades for approximately 5 months.

Neptune rules both sleeping and waking dreams, imagination, fantasies, optimism, and idealism (in life and romance). Review your opinions, values, and belief systems, and listen to your gut. Work with the spiritual and mystical while keeping yourself grounded. Dreams, yoga, meditation, astrology, tarot, and deep inquiry can be very healing at this time. Contemplate your spirituality and belief systems. Focus on your creativity and allow what wants to come through to do so, unhindered. Let go of anything that feels heavy. Watch out for unrealistic or fluffy thinking, seeing people, and circumstances as you want to see them rather than as they are. Overindulgence in numbing agents. Emotions may run high or over the top. To see what area of your life will be influenced by this retrograde, check the current transits in your chart and see what house Neptune is moving through for you.

North Node in Taurus (December 22, 2021 - July 12, 2023)
South Node in Scorpio (December 22, 2021 - July 12, 2023)

North Node in Taurus

The North Node transit shows us what we are moving towards, and the global trends that we should expect over the next 18-month cycle.

The past 18 months have seen a massive change in global trends as the North Node moved through Gemini and the South Node transited Sagittarius.

This showed a moving towards new careers, education, educational formats (homeschooling/online learning/distance learning), as well as working and staying within our more immediate environments with an emphasis on very short distance travel, this saw a massive decrease in commute times through lockdowns and business restructuring.

This presented the ability for many to telecommute, explore grocery delivery and overnight delivery, work from home, telemedicine, and traveling within our more immediate neighborhoods.

In terms of business, this showed up as an explosion of technologies like video conferencing through Zoom, and the transition of businesses that were primarily in person into the online space. We also saw a massive explosion in online learning, new careers, online training, and many stepping into the updating of their businesses into a more online space. The development of new skills, especially highly specific training saw massive growth.

Now with the North Node moving into Taurus, we will see a continuation of much of our lives, whether through work, friendships, and domestic lives growing from right from the comfort of our own homes. Whether it's the continuation of online education, reskilling ourselves, exploring homegrown food, home-based health, and creating rhythms and routines around our more immediate environment.

The return to commuting or long-distance travel or education will continue to remain slow, if not completely and forever changed.

We will look to create more of our luxuries from home, whether it be foods we enjoy, health care, gardens, learning and education, and growing our businesses.

The emphasis will be on creating quality life experiences, which may have many exploring new ways of living, relocating, or new ways of creating sustainability in their lives that they felt they didn't have time (or motivation) to before. We will also see an increase in new currencies especially as the North Node conjuncts Uranus on July 26, 2022.

These trends will continue into 2023, lasting approximately 18 months.

From a business perspective, this is a perfect time to either launch your business into the online space (and home space), and to also explore new training, and slowly build out more security for yourself. If you teach business in any regard, the next 18 months will see massive growth in your industry. This can also be a good time to explore alternative income streams, currencies and creating a side business.

South Node in Scorpio

The South Node shows us what we're coming away from as a collective on a global level, and rules 18-month trends.

The past 18 months have seen a massive change in global trends as the South Node transited Sagittarius.

This showed a moving away from long-distance travel, higher education, retreats, and trips geared to personal development, and for many even a change in their belief systems, traditions (family/religious), and long-term goals.

We saw a massive increase in the consumption of media (Gemini), learning new information and an attempt to determine truth from fiction, while also attempting to form our own opinions for ourselves.

The South Node's transit through Sagittarius saw a complete change in the airline and travel industry, a coming away from global travel, and more to towards local travel, with many of us stuck in our homes or limited to our local areas for staycations.

This also saw a massive increase in learning from home, and a step away from long-distance or higher education, and a shift into choosing your own education for yourself, through the use of online or distance materials.

Now that the South Node is moving into Scorpio, we will see a disillusionment with any forms of manipulation and gas-lighting whether through media, friendships, authority, or governmental figures.

We may also find ourselves questioning previous healing methods, and possibly even avoidance of navigating our own trauma when things become too much.

It will feel more important than ever to step away from what we can't control and into navigating our own spaces and choosing what we allow into them (any negativity may send us into a downward spiral).

We must be cautious of seeking quick fixes at this time, and avoidance doing the deeper work on our health, mindset, psychology, beliefs, and fears.

This is not necessarily the best time for the healing and metaphysical industries, as they will see more people turning away from doing deeper work, even though it is obviously needed, on the other hand, we may see a rise in more manipulative and unethical techniques either through media, competitors in our industry, government authorities, and previously trusted sources.

It will be more imperative than ever to lean into your own intuition to determine what's true for you.

The South Node either obscures, ends, or creates obstacles to the themes of the sign it is transiting through.

Things to monitor during this transit:

Changes to Relationships/Divorce/Morality Rates

Debt/Credit

Death/Endings

Taboo Subjects

Joint Finances

Lawsuits

The Withholding/Gaslighting of Medical Advancements/Truth/Scientific Discovery

The hiding of facts/figures/numbers/data/results
