

Addressing your assigned country's position paper

All of your research on your assigned country and the issue to be discussed in your model UN committee will come together in the form of a position paper.

Paragraph 1 – A brief statement on why your nation feels the topic is important nationally and globally. Can you quote the country's leader?

Paragraph 2 – Addresses country's actions on a national level. Is this an issue for your country? If so, how has the government addressed the issue? (made laws, spent money)

An excellent position paper includes:

Paragraph 3 – Addresses the country's action on an international level. What conferences did the country participate in to discuss the issue? What resolutions/declarations/treaties has the country signed?

Paragraph 4 – States the actions that your country would like to see the body recommend in a resolution
