II. Activities

The TLRC works to provide resources, conversation spaces, and opportunities for faculty to address and adapt to the everchanging teaching environment.

During the 2021-2022 academic year, the TLRC met approximately once per month and hosted or co-hosted three roundtable discussions and three workshops. Many roundtable discussions and workshops focused or touched on teaching amidst the pandemic and juggling multiple modalities (e.g., in-person, hybrid, remote).

In addition, representatives of the TLRC:

- 1) served on the Brightspace Migration Committee (ad hoc)

2) reviewed, edited, and submitted by-laws revisions to the By-Laws Revision Committee of the Faculty Senate

3) met with representatives of the Faculty Senate Executive Committee and Open Educational Resources (OER) Committee to chart a path forward for OER to become a permanent stand-alone committee

The TLRC did not host a New Faculty Orientation this academic year because the three new tenure-track faculty members (Jessica Williams, Keisha Goode, and Danielle Lee), all of whom were non-tenure track faculty members at SUNY Old Westbury prior to their new appointment and who participated in an orientation at the time of their initial hire.

The committee continued to serve in an advisory capacity to the Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning (CETL) in its fourth full year of activity and represented faculty teaching needs and requirements on the Distance Learning Taskforce.

Please note that members of the TLRC rely heavily on the expertise and participation of our colleagues to develop successful initiatives, and always welcome suggestions/volunteers for presenters.
