

South Korea/Indonesia Rental Agreement and Non-Aggression Pact

August 31, 2012

Rental of Jeolla

South Korea and Indonesia agree to the following terms:

1. Indonesia will pay a weekly sum of 5 Gold to South Korea every Sunday starting on Sunday September 2nd and ending on Saturday September 30th. The payments will be established via contract between South Korea Org and Indonesia Org and each one will represent payment for the upcoming week's rent.
2. There will be no rental fee for the period of Wednesday August 29th through Saturday September 1st.
3. South Korea and Indonesia will declare peace in the open war between the two countries. After the war is closed, a mutual protection pact will be maintained between them. In addition to their weekly rental fee, Indonesia will cover the expense of South Korea's cost of the mutual protection pact each month this agreement is in effect.

Non-Aggression Pact

This Non-Aggression Pact is in conjunction with the rental agreement outlined above. South Korea and Indonesia will agree to the following terms:

1. For the month of September, both South Korea and Indonesia agree not to attack each other's regions or declare war on each other.
2. South Korea agrees not to start a Resistance War in Jeolla, nor fight on the side of the resistance should a Resistance War be started there by an outside party. Should a RW be started by an outside party, Sk agrees to set official orders to fight on the side of Indonesia.
3. In the event that an outside party starts a Resistance War in Jeolla and succeeds in liberating the region from Indonesia, South Korea agrees to return the region to Indonesia in compliance with the NAP and Rental agreement. The following rental payment will be reduced by 0.75 Gold per day that Indonesia is not in control of Jeolla.

If any of the terms of the agreement are breached, both the Non-Aggression Pact between South Korea and Indonesia, and rental agreement for Jeolla, will become null and void.

Both countries' representatives agree to return to negotiate an extension of these agreements on the 7th day of October.

Signed,

Interim President of South Korea

Interim President of Indonesia
