❖ - Competitive

Adventurous, ambitious, impulsive, enthusiastic, and full of energy. He welcomes challenges and will not be diverted from his purpose except by impatience, which will surface if he does not get quick results.

Most of the time Ruwan can be much concerned with self, both positively and negatively: Self-reliant but also self-centered and concerned with his own personal advancement and physical satisfaction.

His immense energy makes him aggressive, restless, argumentative, and headstrong, quick-tempered, easily offended, and capable of holding grudges if he feels affronted.

History

Ruwan comes from a small family consisting of his father, and older brother, making Ruwan the youngest. He knows very little of his mother, other than she is from an island somewhere.

Because of his family relationships and experiences with others, Ruwan is wrought with internal struggles. Not remembering his mother, coupled with the feeling of abandonment, aggravates his distrust of people. In his eyes, his father lives in a world of denial where he expects their mother to return someday.

Compared to his older brother Ruwan lacks physical strength and social standing. Because of this, Ruwan feels inadequate and blames many of his shortcomings on his inability to become “successful.”

Though his brother had promised Ruwan they would always remain as equals, tensions, and jealousy often threaten their relationship, with others expecting the younger one to fail. Hurtful rumors that he might even turn on his brother seem to fuel this resentment. It was this that spurred him to move away from his family.

Ruwan’s move was so hasty, he didn’t prepare well and lacked enough PD to live comfortably. This made him take odd jobs here and there. Whatever fell on his lap, regardless if he knew how to do the job or not, he would give it a shot.

Nimble Feet

What he lacks in strength he has in agility, being able to perform feats of dexterity far beyond the capabilities of the usual. Regardless of this, he tends to be very clumsy when he is not focused or has a determined goal.

Fun Facts

Friends

In personal relationships, Ruwan is frank, direct, and candid, and makes an enthusiastic and generous friend. He respects those who are not afraid to speak their mind.

Enemies

He can easily be irritated by slowness or moderation in others. Though he can be very sensitive, he tends to ride roughshod over the sensitivities of others. Rowan is not afraid to be forceful; it is the very core of his character.

Romance

Rowan is liable to be a passionate but fastidious lover. He could be easily tricked into an early unwise union, which could end disastrously. If the relationship were to produce children Rowan would be highly devoted to them, even to the point of laying down his own life, so that his progeny might live.
