Walk-on: folk (3 or 4 short tracks from ‘the Wicker Man,’ including ‘Summer is a-Cumen in’... but not the theme)’ Those who said “Film theme” were very unlucky, but we can’t go against the written stipulations on the form (which will be revised for the 2026 season as a result of this example). “U” on the results spreadsheet commemorates your unluckiness, FWIW.

2/11 Llangollen Setlist 12 July 2023

Walk-on music “Nice one Cyril” single by Cockerel Chorus, 1973. Will accept categories such as Football song, novelty song, advertising jingle ... OK I’ll give you “sport”(well played, sir).... Not “pop” ... the committee pondered allowing “folk” ... but nah.

[The Joy Division fragments were spontaneous inclusions, clearly hadn’t been practised specifically for this gig (delightful and accomplished though they undoubtedly were), and if there was whole band participation it wasn’t for more than a few seconds, so they don’t count for FB purposes].

2/10 Edinburgh setlist

11 out of 29 different = 37.93103448275862

Walk-on = indie (the Smiths) Would accept indie rock, post-punk, alternative rock even.

I have agonised about “pop” but no, as a former Smiths devotee (and therefore finding that agonising comes naturally) I can’t accept that. I would however be willing to be over-ruled by a jury of my peers.

Provisional Leamington points (please check yours)

Only TFO Keith won the 20 joker points this week. So he does remain top of the pile going into the tricky Easter fixture congestion. Everyone scored the maximum 24 points for the dropped songs, so the number 24 below refers to that in all cases:

CtSO _____ 94 points (60 for Bottleneck, 24, 5 for a London band (like Quo), 5 for an "S" band (like Quo))

Dr Desperate _____ 84 points (60 for Bottleneck, 24)

Ferencvaros Fan__ 58 points (4 Ditch, 24, 30 Magazine)

Transit full of Keith_ 57 points (3 Dean F, with 20-point joker, 24, 5 for an "S" band, 5 for second closest %though not particularly close with 37.93%

Mr Spokesman _____ 49 (15 Westward Ho!, 24, 10 opener Ho!)
