

BASIC INFO

Name: Celeste

Nickname(s): Cel

Pronouns: She/her

Age: 21 yo

Species: Ribbon snake monster

Sexuality: Hetero

Occupation: Waiter at QC's diner currently

Alignment: Chaotic good

ATTITUDE

Personality: Despite her appearance, she usually appears as a character of blunt demeanor and slightly "aggressive" way of expressing her affection towards someone.

Like, for example, telling a friend who sees low upon themselves "I'm gonna SMITE YOU if you keep agreeing to ppl saying UGLY SHIT about ya!!!" Of course always jokingly and even giving super light little playful punches sometimes.

But also, she has a soft spot beneath that, taking some people by surprise yet again when she sings sweet songs she loves, though she can also sing more passionate/powerful songs.

Likes: Ribbons, bright aesthetics, hugs, playing video games with friends, sweets, especially chocolates of any kind, singing and playing guitar.

Dislikes: Discrimination, way too annoying people, anyone going against her friends for no good reason.

Hobbies: Singing, composing guitar beats and practicing guitar playing, she has actually composed a few demos for some discographies and earned money from it before.

Strengths: Can be very direct and her attitude could be just what some people may need to realize certain things. Doesn't let anyone control her, she's the maker of her own life path.

Weaknesses: Her blunt attitude can be misinterpreted by some as her being rude or mean.

RELATIONSHIPS

Relatives: Parents who she moved to Hometown with, she's a single child.

Friend(s): Catty, Asriel (before he moved to study at university)

Enemies/Rivals: Not that much enemies but dislikes and cut ties with Bratty from CH5 onwards for what she did to Pizzapants and Blue Ears.

Love interest: Blue Ears (friend and crush)

Relationship Status: Single

BACKSTORY

She moved to Hometown when she was 15 years old, where she went to high school and made a few friendships rather quickly which would stick until years later.

Always having been talented at music and singing, she studied in special music classes a lot over the years and has been looking for opportunities of perhaps a discography picking her up since then! But for now, only been contacted for demos at most. Meanwhile, she's currently working at QC's diner, while making music to post online, some for free, some for sale, some mini albums here and there, in her free time.

As a teenager, she had made a super best friend at the Hometown school and they formed a sort of little band together, they even escalated to the point of situationship near-relationship, however... one day, this boy just ghosted her. Started avoiding her. Stopped talking to her. All their plans to make their band official together as grownups... down the drain. Which left everlasting love trauma that she would eventually learn to cope/deal with over the years.

LIGHT WORLD INFO

Appearance Description: Pink-colored body comprised of rolled up ribbons in different positions shaping up an anthropomorphic snake creature, with a big ribbon on the back of her head and two tiny ones, one on each arm. Her height being almost 6 feet (1.80 m) not counting the big ribbon on her head. Her hands and feet all have three small pointy claws on each. She wears a white sleeveless hoodie of a slight peach-ish tone, with a single big pocket on the center of the belly area with a two-way opening on the sides, very typical of this piece of attire.

DARK WORLD INFO

Appearance Description: Very similar to her light world appearance, differences being: all of her ribbons (head and arms) being heart shaped, her whole body being green instead of pink now, her hoodie being replaced by a dress which is short at the front but has a long tail on the back, this dress is also white but on a slight teal tint instead of peach.

The string of her hoodie turns into a collar called "Promise Collar", which works as her armor.

This collar is symbolic of the promise she made to herself as a singer and guitarist of one day hitting it big. Her beating heart, powered by music, and the sparkle of light shining determination in her soul, bright amidst the darkness of uncertainty, both connected by the same string, which would represent Cel's being.

As a bonus, her dark world form in general is very reminiscent of one of her mini album covers.

(I also made it slightly reminiscent of Hathy cosmetically just for fun visuals)
