

6th grade Multimedia presentation guidelines

Due the Last Monday of April

Examples of multimedia presentations include, but are not limited to,

Google Slides

Prezi

Videos

Smore: <https://www.smore.com>

Online brochure

The presentation should include the following:

- A short introduction of yourself
- An explanation of the language you are learning and why it's important to know more than one language

A summary detailing how you have used your knowledge of language and culture to help in your community or school (translating, using a language other than English, helping at a multicultural event, helping English language learners, etc.)