

Invitation to a Bottle Duet

Imagine a bottle cast into the sea, carrying a silent message, yet full of symbols. Whoever finds it may respond, creating an unpredictable and unique dialogue.

Inspired by this idea, the Bottle Duets project invites you to leave your mark in time by creating a self-documentation that is both a provocation and an invitation for an artistic duet with the future.

The challenge is this: What, in your context, deserves to be recorded as a self-documentation that also serves as a call for an artistic collaboration with someone you don't know? How can you transform this documentation into a dialogue, rather than a monologue, leaving room for interpretation so that your future artistic partner can also take the lead and complete the work?

This artistic journey, where the present and future intertwine, can turn every gesture into a seed for unexpected connections.

Would you like to join a conversation that spans time? Would you like to leave or to respond to a message in a bottle?
