Hey [name],

I was curious about your website when I first saw your video <video name>. Props to you for supporting the community by providing <valuable information> to your audiences.

Your <service> has been very helpful to people that are in <pains/problem> I just wanted to give a heads-up on this headline strategy.

There is a new headline format to catch the eye of your customers and double your product's selling potential.

Your customers will no longer receive a headache when reading a 100-word description of your product.

They will be drawn to the headline and your services will be flowing with clients

I realised that you weren't implementing the headlines on your website <website name>

As someone who values your business, I wanted to bring this to your attention and offer my support.

By changing up the words and tweaking the format, you will have a more profitable website in no time.

Thanks so much for taking the time to read this email. I really appreciate your support and am looking forward to hearing your thoughts.

Hey [name],

I was curious about your website when I first saw your video <video name>. Props to you for supporting the community by providing <valuable information> to your audiences.

Your <service> has been helpful in people that are in <pains/problem>. I just wanted to let you know that it has been implemented on many websites already.

There is a headline blueprint made to catch the eyes of your audience.

By changing the words of your headline and website, your customers will feel at ease.

Instead of using words that clump up your description, you will be using words that are easy to read.

Your customers will no longer receive a headache when reading a 100-word description of your product.

They will be drawn to the headline and your services will be flowing with clients

I realised that you weren't implementing the headlines on your website <website name>
