

☆ For my country to be free ☆

By Ben Wolper

In the sky, flying high,
As guns blaze, and shrapnel flies, I keep my eyes upon the prize, for my country to be free, I'd even give my life for thee, I fight for freedom and for rights, through the many days and nights,
Even when the hope is lacking, when the enemy is attacking, I stand tall, as men fall, and risk my life for my country
I fight to keep the hope alive, For my country to survive,
Through this war I fight for thee,
For my country to be free
