

Christ the Redeemer

Location: Rio de Janeiro, Brazil

Built: 1920-1931

Interesting Facts:

- The statue is 98 feet tall and the arms stretch to 92 feet long
- Christ the Redeemer is located in the Tijuca Forest National Forest, at the top of the Corcovado Mountain
- This statue became one of the New Seven Wonders of the World on July 7th, 2007
- The official draft for the statue was designed by engineer Heitor da Silva Costa and sculpted by Paul Landowski, a French sculptor
- Christ the Redeemer Images