rules & info

please read this before signing up

Welcome to the Wangxian Gift Exchange! All information you will need to participate in the event will be on this doc, so feel free to reference it if you ever have questions! Those who apply for this gift exchange will be assigned another person to make a gift for and they will receive a gift from someone else in return. You won't know who is making your gift until you receive it. A gift can be fanart, fanfiction, video edit, photo edit or even multimedia. In order to sign up, you simply have to complete the form that will be posted on this account on Monday, April 5. After sign-ups close, you will receive a message from the mod (@wangxianpeonies). After that, you will have two months until the deadline to prepare your gift. In the meantime, be sure not to reveal anything about your gift until the posting date. You can also sign up as a pinch hitter to cover for someone in case they need to drop out, or as a beta reader to review someone else's fic. Pinch hitter and beta reader signup forms will be separate to the main one but they will be released together.

Schedule:

April 5th: signups open

May 3rd: signups close (and assignments will be distributed within the next couple of days)

May 26th: first progress check *

June 19th: second progress check *

July 3rd: posting day!!

*(the mod will dm you for the progress checks)

Rules:

1. This gift exchange is dedicated to WangXian and so all prompts and gifts must be WangXian centered. However, other side characters and pairings are allowed to be featured as well for and you can request them in the signup form.
2. Don't post anything related to your gift, or reveal the recipient of your gift until the posting date.
3. When posting your gift on Instagram, make sure to use the hashtag #wangxiangiftexchangeround2 and tag the person it's for. If your gift is posted on Ao3, you have to submit it to the event's Ao3 collection and gift the work to the person you're assigned to (if they have an Ao3 account). You can also post a preview on Instagram and tag as mentioned above.
4. Art gifts must be completed pieces, and they can also be short comics. Fics should be at least 5k words long but there is no max word count. Fics can also be either one shots or chaptered, but they have to be completed by the deadline.
5. All the work posted for this event should be tagged #wangxiangiftexchangeround2
6. The fics written for this exchange must be primarily in English.
7. Obviously, tracing or copying art (official or not) is not allowed. If it comes to the mod's attention that you have done this, you will be banned from the event. The same applies to stolen fics.
8. In case you need to drop out of the event, please let the mod know before June 12th, so that a pinch hitter has enough time to take your place.

FAQ:

"Can I request to receive art or fic specifically?"

No. You can only provide prompts and preferences, whether you get art or fic is up to the person you'll be assigned to. This is why it would be best to provide guidance for both types of content.

"Can I make multiple gifts?"

Yes. The required submission is one complete piece, but you're allowed to make multiple if you want

"Can my gift be a current WIP I have?"

It depends. If it's just a draft or a sketch that no one has seen, then it's okay to adapt it for the gift exchange. If the WIP, or part of it, has been posted before in any platform then you're not allowed to use it.

"Can I post my work on other platforms aside from Instagram and Ao3?"

You are required to post on at least one of these two platforms, but you're also allowed to post on other websites, as long as you mention the event the piece is for.

"Can I sign up as a pinch hitter/beta reader if I'm already participating in the event as a content creator?"

Yes. If you think you can handle more than one position then you're welcome to sign up.
