

Hi [Name]

Your dedication to helping people is amazing and your hard work is paying off. That being said I believe a person like you could reach even higher places.

You are in luck. I have an opportunity that would help you with monetizing and grabbing attention.

There are several things I can do to reach it out:

- Email marketing - That will boost open rates, engagement, and sales.
- Headline - make it more intriguing to catch the reader's attention and monetize it.
- Lead magnet - free value that will help you get new customers.

I am interested in starting a partnership with you, and so, I would be willing to do this for free.

Best regards,

Krystian.
