Week 1

Activity	Learning Plan (Posted on Google Classroom) (instructions and links to resources)
1	Watch Episode 6 of El Internado <ol style="list-style-type: none"> You can view here. Feel free to find the episode elsewhere if that suits you better.
2	Hablar - El Internado <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Go to Flipgrid (the password is hoback2e2019) where you will participate in a structured conversation about El Internado. When you're ready to

	begin recording, click the green plus button to begin your recording. Play this audio (right as you begin recording) and listen to each question. Respond to each question as best you can. After the audio finishes, stop your Flipgrid video, snap an awesome selfie, and turn it in. Make sure that you don't prepare your answers beforehand; it should not look like you're reading from something.
3	Ensayo argumentativo (TURN IN ON GOOGLE CLASSROOM) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> You will write an argumentative / persuasive essay on the following topic: Chesterfield County tomó la decisión correcta cuando decidió cerrar las escuelas por 2 semanas y cancelar todos los eventos -- ¿Sí o no? As you formulate your opinion, read the following two articles about the issue: Fuente 1 (especially near the bottom on school closures and challenges), Fuente 2 Your essay should be at least 5 paragraphs in Spanish and should weave in both Fuente 1 and Fuente 2 as you share and support your own opinion. You should look up no more than 15 words as you write (it should sound like your writing). Write your essay in a Google Doc and turn it in on Google Classroom.

Week 10 (May 26 - 29)

Activity	Learning Plan (POSTED ON GOOGLE CLASSROOM)
1	Diario - GOOGLE CLASSROOM Take some time to write in Spanish about what's on your mind! You can reflect on the whole year, the last two months stuck at home, your hopes for this summer, your hopes for the future, how you felt the AP exam went, etc. Write about whatever you'd like! Please don't look up any words as you share what's on your mind. Write at least 75 words and answer on Google Classroom.
2	Study Abroad - GOOGLE CLASSROOM Think about the future and the possibility to travel abroad to a Spanish-speaking country where you can put your Spanish to the test. Even though travel isn't easy right now, find the link to a website that can help you make this happen in the future. If you plan to go to college, find the website on your preferred college's website about study abroad (and how to apply for money to fund it). If you don't plan to go to college, find a website that can show you how to plan a trip to a Spanish-speaking country on a tight budget. Place the link in your answer to the question on Google Classroom.
3	Meme en español - GOOGLE CLASSROOM Find a meme in Spanish that you find funny! If you took the AP Spanish test, find a meme (in English or Spanish) about the test that you find funny. Turn in the image or the link to the image on Google Classroom.
