‘FLICKER (NATHAN MICAY REMIX)’

Please credit label as (Soothsayer)

Juno Mamba is delighted to share a remix of his debut single ‘Flicker’ by renowned Toronto-born, Berlin-based producer Nathan Micay.

The remix came about in a relatively short space of time. After a sake-soaked conversation (thanks Tomoya) between Nathan and Juno’s label (who were touring Nathan at the time), the two parties decided a remix would be a great idea. To be honest, everything is a great idea after that much sake. While on said tour, Micay worked on the remix in his downtime in Byron Bay and turned it out within the week. Putting finishing touches in the greenroom before his Splendour In The Grass set, the remix bounces with unbridled enthusiasm with a festival crowd deeply in mind.

"I recently discovered Nathan Micay's work and I was blown away by his production and creativity. When he said he was up for remixing Flicker, I was eager to hear how he would interpret it. He's taken the original and totally reimagined it. I'm excited for people to hear the raw energy he injected into the track and I'm hanging out for a chance to play it out." – Juno Mamba

Where Juno's 'Flicker' draws inspiration from man-made structures and natural elements, Nathan's rework beckons celestial universes with his otherworldly soundscapes that draw from 90's rave culture and cyberpunk sci-fi.

Known for this complex and distinctive sound, Nathan's recently released debut album Blue Spring received critical acclaim from Resident Advisor, Mix Mag, FACT, The Quietus and DAZED. Loved locally for his electric live show, Nathan dazzled crowds at this year's Splendour In The Grass and was recently announced on the Pitch Music & Arts Festival line-up for 2020.

Premiered on triple j and The Ransom Note (UK) in early October, Juno Mamba's 'Flicker' received immediate international support from Our Culture Mag, Stereofox and ADSR Collective and radio love from FBi, Triple R, SYN FM, Double J and Radio Adelaide locally. The track was added to Spotify's Top-Shelf Electronic, Fresh Finds: Basement (US), Apple Music's Global Dance (US, UK, AUS, MX, FR) and Breaking Dance (US, MX, JP, KR), Dance Hot Tracks (US), Trance & Progressive (US) and Amazon Music's global playlist Progressive House Now.
