Notes:

- Yes, they all have a backstory and personality. Every. Single. One.
- I probably won't describe them all at one time, or soon, because that may take a while-
- Note to self: Oliver is a good name. Use it. For the love of God, Pine, quit reusing names when you have a perfectly good name chillin' here at the ready.

Below is a list of the mainest of the main characters, in order from "please for the love of God and Heaven ask this person" to "yes this is a good character that should be included."

Canon and not (yet) canon ships

Canon

Jacob x Violet

Otis x Holly

Pyra x Luke

Takeo x Nera

Kami x Virtua (Eh well these two are kids but Virtua is a flirty 11 year old and Kami is easily flustered so I had to include it lol)

Hollo x Luna

Orange x Tan

Cyan x Fern

Kiwi x Frost

Spirit x Tril

Not canon

Tueskel x Void (Negavi was raised as their son, so it's actually not a long shot at all.)

Red x Gray (Tis nice.)

Noah x Pandora (Only slightly cursed.)

Latte x Cice (Hehe that'd be hilarious, because of how annoying and lazy Cice is, versus Latte's motivated and level-headed personality. Cice is the only one who really gets her mad. Then again, Cice was always intended to be a bachelor.)

Breeze x Arkana (This feels a bit desperate, and a bit unfitting. Breeze is the wholesome one who is loyal and protective, like Jacob. Arkana is hyper, adorable, feisty, and a bit crazy. It'd be a bit like shipping Jacob and Twilight, if Twilight was the same age as Jacob.)

Clover x Cody (Aww, this is nice. The drunk one shipped with the one who carries her unconscious body back to the fort and cooks eggs for her in the morning. Also the one who patiently waits until she is done with her breakfast, then gives her a long lecture about not passing out drunk in enemy-FRICKING-territory.)

Timmy x Copper (I am not sure how to react to someone suggesting this, since nobody knows about Fireteam Cardboard.)

Kodi x Cazneer/Root x Leaf (Possible, but I think they'll remain friends, probably closer to being like siblings.)

Pup x Opal (eh maybe when Opal gets older I could have that but Opal is a little kid so for now that is OUT OF THE QUESTION-)

Random Notes:

- The Nolia's house number is 303
- Church lives across the street. Phyre lives on their right, while Hazel and Kiki live on the left, with Kiki's house being the one closer to the Nolias'. The others live up the lane to the left, since the Nolias' house is second to last on the avenue.
- Ash Avenue is a dead end street.
- Ash Avenue joins up to Defense Parkway, one of the main roads in Cindera. It goes all the way from the Market Square to Southfront Street, which is at the southernmost end of Cindera. It mainly runs through neighborhoods, like Ash Avenue. It was originally built as a path from the Square to Southfront, but people began branching out and building houses there.
- Battlefront Drive, another one of Cindera's OG roads, branches off of Defense Parkway and runs straight through the Military District. There is a toll gate to get into the district, however.
- Almond Street, which branches off from the manufacturing/business highway leading from Glomera, goes right past one of the faculty parking lots of Cindera Skies.
- Wonderville Drive, one of the housing roads/neighborhoods, branches off of Defense Parkway a few streets past Autumn Acres. It leads into Almond Street.
- To get to Cindera Skies, Tink goes to the end of Ash Avenue. He takes a left onto Defense Parkway, then follows it until he takes another left, this time onto Wonderville Drive. He follows it until it joins into Almond Street. He turns right onto Almond Street and follows it to Cindera Skies. He goes into one of the backdoors with a keycard he stole from a faculty member he saw at the grocery store. He is then able to watch the pilots from the roof of the surveillance tower.
- Tink met Autumn on one of his "outings."

- Cinderella is named after the fact that it originated from the flaming remains of a Primenelean ship that some travelling soldiers found and used for warmth. They encamped there, and a big battle ended up being fought for the newly named Cinderella. The Konazelians won, and began to build a city.
