REFERENCES

The reference list in this article follows the Turabian Style, adapted from the latest edition of The Chicago Manual of Style. The author's name is written with the last name first, followed by a comma, then the first and middle names. The book title is written in italics. If there are two or more authors, the first author's name is inverted (last name first), while the following authors' names are written normally and separated by the word and.
