1. Acceptable Item Categories

- Only baby, child, or family-related items are accepted (e.g., clothing, toys, books, feeding supplies, accessories, etc.).
- No electronic products or appliances are allowed.
- All items must have an estimated resale value of $100 or less.
- Both brand new and gently used items are accepted, but they must be clean, functional, and in good condition.
- Large or bulky items will not be accepted due to space limitations.
- The organizer reserves the right to decline any items at any time that do not meet the criteria.

2. Application and Approval Process

- Each item or bundle must be submitted through a separate application form, which must include:
  - Item name and description
  - Condition of the item (e.g., new, like new, good, fair, etc.)
  - Suggested selling price
  - Preferred time slot
  - At least 1 to 3 clear item photos

- All applications will be reviewed and approved by the organizer. Approved items will be displayed on the event website with full details and the assigned selling time slot.

3. Time Slot Arrangement

- Each participant will be assigned approximately 90 minutes for display and sales. Participants may request a time extension if circumstances allow, and the organizer will consider such requests based on venue and schedule availability.
- Participants may only display and sell items within their assigned time slot. Early setup or late cleanup is not allowed.
- All items and displays must be cleared promptly after the time slot ends.

4. On-site Guidelines and Transaction Rules

- Participants must be physically present during their assigned time slot. Proxy drop-offs or unattended items are not allowed.
- All transactions must be conducted in person and in cash between the participant and the buyer. The organizer is only responsible for providing the venue and promotion and will not be involved in pricing or handling payments. No change will be provided, and the organizer will not collect or transfer any funds.
- Pre-booking or item reservations are not permitted. All sales are on a first-come, first-served basis.
- Participants are responsible for monitoring their items throughout their time slot. The organizer is not liable for any lost, damaged, or stolen items.
- The quality and authenticity of all approved items are the sole responsibility of the participant. The organizer accepts no responsibility regarding the condition, performance, or quality of any item.

5. Display and Conduct Guidelines

- Participants may bring small mats, cloths, or trays to neatly display their items, and prices should be clearly labeled.
- Participants are encouraged to respond to inquiries patiently and create a friendly atmosphere.
- All item conditions must be stated honestly. Any false or misleading claims may result in immediate disqualification and the participant being barred from future events organized by the centre.

6. Handling of Unsold Items

- All unsold items must be taken home by the participant at the end of the event day. The centre will not store or handle any remaining items.
- If the participant fails to collect their items in time, they may be treated as abandoned and handled at the discretion of the organizer.

- The organizer reserves the right to make final decisions regarding the event and to modify the terms and conditions without prior notice.
