

When you download the firmware from our website, you may come across two different situations.

Please follow the red arrows shown in the screenshots to download it correctly.

First situation: as shown in the screenshot below.

Second situation: as shown in the screenshot below.

In the second situation, when you try to extract the files, the system will ask you to enter a password. Please use xduoo as the password. This password applies to all files.