This blog post is talking about how the media reacted to blacks banning whites from BLM rallies. The media, including citizens and news outlets, reacted by ranting about how bad the decision was. After 36 hours, the coordinators responded by saying, "Malcolm X "took our same stance" and anyone who identifies as a person of the African Diaspora was welcome to attend. If not, "you can support us in other ways." This topic relates to my project because it includes more recent news in the BLM Movement's history. I can infer that these coordinators are very serious about their rallies.

This is just the history of the BLM Movement. It talks about how it started, the main people involved, and how the United States have reacted to it. This relates to my project because it gave me all the information I needed. It corroborated other sites and helped me check their credibility. This site provided the backbone of my research.

"Killed By Police." Killed By Police 2017. Killed By Police Net, 2017. Web. 26 Apr. 2017.

Although my topic isn't police brutality, this website provides the numbers of police killings since 2015. This site was really helpful because although it doesn't look credible, it also corroborated with other websites to help me confirm information. This relates to my topic because it shows the numbers of African Americans being killed by police, in comparison to other races.

This website contains a few of the unarmed African Americans who were killed by police in 2015.

Hate Map." Southern Poverty Law Center. SPLC, 2015. Web. 18 May 2017.

<https://www.splcenter.org/hate-map>.

This is the hate groups in the United States. Everything from the KKK to LGBT hate groups. This number surprised me when I first saw it because there are a total of 913 hate groups, and that number is way too high for a country of "UNITY". This number has skyrocketed or the course of 5-10 years and the doubled from 2013 to now.

This site is the history of black separatist groups. I actually learned something new from this page because I didn't know the Black Panthers were still active here in the US. The number of Black Panther groups are almost equal to that of the amount of KKK groups which is also stunning to me.

This is the document that contains my best/favorite interview. The man I interviewed was very down to earth and I liked the results I received from him. He's been around for a long time and he had a lot to say from his perspective and his past experiences. I have his number and email so I can contact him and speak with him further upon the topic.
